2                   THE VIDEOGRAPHER: Good
3                   afternoon, everybody. We are going
4                   on the record at 2:39 p.m. central
5                   time on April 15, 2024.

6                   Please note that this
7                   deposition is being conducted
8                   virtually.

9                   Quality of recording depends
10                  on the quality of the camera and 11                  internet connection of the 12                  participants.

13                  Audio and video recording
14                  will continue to take place unless 15                  all parties agree to go off the 16                  record.

17                  This is media unit number 1
18                  of the video recorded deposition of 19                  Alexander Jones, taken by counsel
20                  for the Plaintiff, in the matter of 21                  In re: Alexander E. Jones, filed in 22                  the U.S. Bankruptcy Court for the 23                  Southern District of Texas, Houston
24                  Division, case number 22-33553
25                  (CML).

2                   This deposition is being
3                   conducted virtually, using virtual
4                   technology.

5                   My name is James Winslow
6                   representing Veritext New York. I
7                   am the videographer.

8                   The court reporter is Stephen
9                   Moore, also from the firm Veritext.

10                  I am not authorized to
11                  administer an oath, no are am I
12                  related to any party in this action,
13                  nor am I financially interested in 14                  the outcome.

15                  If there are any objections
16                  to proceeding, please state them at 17                  the time of your appearance.

18                  Counsel and all present,
19                  including remotely, will now state
20                  their appearances and affiliations
21                  for the record, beginning with the 22                  noticing attorney.

23                  MR. PATERSON: Good
24                  afternoon, everyone, Paul Paterson,

21                  EXAMINATION BY

22                  MR. PATERSON:

23
24                  Q                  Good afternoon, Mr. Jones.

25                  My name is Paul Paterson. We haven't met

Page 10

1                    ALEXANDER E. JONES

2 before, have we?

3                    A I don't believe so.

4                    Q You've been deposed a number
5 of times before, correct?

6                    A Yes.

7                    Q And, so do you understand the 8 basic ground rules for a deposition?

9                    A Yes.

10                  Q You understand you're under 11 oath and required by law to provide truthful
12 answers today?

13                  A Yes.

14                  Q Just a couple of very quick
15 ground rules. If you do not understand the 16 question I'm asking, please let me know, I'm 17 happy to try to rephrase.

18                   Otherwise I will assume you
19 understood.

20                   Your counsel may object to 21 certain questions, but unless she directs
22 you otherwise you should still go ahead and 23 answer.

24                   And if at any time today you
25 would like to take a break, please just let

Page 11

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES

2       me know.

3                   The only thing I would ask is 4       that if there is a question pending, that
5       you answer that question before we take a
6       break.

7                   Does that all make sense?

8       A       Yes, thank you very much.

9       Q       Where are you located at the 10      moment?

11      A       I am in Austin, Texas at my 12      offices.

13      Q       That's the Free Speech
14      office?

15      A       Yes, sir.

16      Q       Beside your counsel and
17      Mr. Slizer, is anyone else physically in the 18      room with you?

19      A       No.

20      Q       Do you have any documents or 21      papers in front of you?

22      A       No. But I have a Topo Chico
23      in front of me.

24      Q       Do you have any electronic 25      documents or internet browsers open on your

Page 12

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES
2 computer other than the deposition software?

3                   A         No.

4                   Q         Do you have any electronic
5 devices nearby, like a cell phone or tablet?

6                   A         I mean --

7                   MS. DRIVER: It's to the 8 side, but it's face down.

9                   Q         Okay.

10                  A         Technically there is a TV
11 right there, computers, I am in a room full 12 of computers, but I'm not looking at 13 anything but you.

14                  Q         Excellent.

15                  Mr. Jones, what did you do to 16 prepare for your deposition today?

17                  A         I met with Vickie for like
18 two hours yesterday, or an hour and a half.

19                  Q         You said that was yesterday?

20                  A         Yes.

21                  Q         And was anyone besides you
22 and Ms. Driver present?

23                  A         No.

24                  Q         Were you shown any documents
25 during that session?

Page 13

1                    ALEXANDER E. JONES

2                    A         Yes, she reminded me of some
3        of the documents I've seen before.

4                    Q         And did any of those
5        documents refresh your recollection of 6        events?

7                    A         Yes, she was asking me to 8        read them again.

9                    Q         And when you read those 10      documents, did your recollection on any 11      issues come back to you?

12                  A         It gave -- no, it gave me a
13      headache. She sat there and made me read
14      them and that was basically the meeting.

15                  Q         Have you discussed your 16      deposition today with anyone other than Ms.
17      Driver?

18                  A         No.

19                  Q         And you received a package of 20      documents or your counsel received a package
21      of documents before the deposition, is that
22      right?

23                  A         I don't know that.

24                  Q         Okay, we will get to that.

25                  Mr. Jones, when did you first

Page 14

1                    ALEXANDER E. JONES

2 consider filing for bankruptcy?

3                    A         Years ago, a couple of years
4 ago, I don't remember, it was a couple of
5 years. All the dates are a blur.

6                    Q         You filed your bankruptcy
7 case in late 2022, is that right?

8                    A         I filed -- we filed the 9 corporate one before and mine later. I
10 don't remember the days.

11                  Q         Why did you file for
12 bankruptcy?

13                  A         Because I was out of money.
14 I had sold my main house to pay for the 15 stuff, I had given the Bic loan money to 16 keep it going, and I was hearing I had all
17 this fabulous money everywhere, and I
18 thought A, I was out of money and couldn't
19 pay for another trial.

20                  I thought well, if I show
21 these people I don't have all this money and 22 lift my skirts up, maybe they will be
23 reasonable.

24                  So I was like, I was out of 25 money, and I wanted to, like I always

Page 15

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES
2 constantly heard in court and stuff with no
3 proof I had hundreds of millions of dollars,
4 which I've never had more than $6, $7, $8
5 million in the bank at the maximum and a few
6 pieces of property.

7                   I wanted to be able to like
8 just show you guys and just move on.

9                   Q         And when you said show these 10 people and you guys, are you referring to 11 the Plaintiffs who had judgments against
12 you?

13                  A         Well, the whole world, but 14 yeah, I was just seeing all this stuff in 15 the news that wasn't true.

16                  Q         And did you hope in the 17 bankruptcy to dispose of the claims that had 18 been asserted against you by various
19 Plaintiffs?

20                   MS. DRIVER: Objection, form.

21                  A         My reason for declaring
22 bankruptcy, I'm not a lawyer, was I was out
23 of money, and there were all these false
24 claims about all this money, so I thought
25 just let it all be investigated and just

Page 16

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES

2       show my hand.

3                   Q         And were you hoping in the 4       process to get rid of the claims that had
5       been asserted by the Connecticut Plaintiffs?

6                   MS. DRIVER: Objection to
7       form.

8                   A         Again, I'm not a lawyer. I
9       was attempting to make a deal with them and 10      show them the money that was there.

11                  Q         To your knowledge, what has 12      happened in your bankruptcy case since it
13      was filed?

14                  A         I don't know how to answer
15      that. I mean, it's been a giant
16      investigation to discover I've told the 17      truth.

18                  And so now we are here, it's
19      drawn out for, I think my personal, over a
20      year and a half, I think the M4 is two 21      years.

22                  I'm going from memory, I'm
23      not saying that's exactly accurate, but you
24      have the dates, I don't have them, and it's 25      been a huge waste of money for everybody,

Page 17

1                    ALEXANDER E. JONES
2 because I was trying to say here is the
3 money I've got, let's make a deal, and
4 instead, there was this witch hunt to find
5 money that doesn't exist.

6                    So to me, it's been pretty
7 disastrous.

8                    Q         And so, what you just 9 described was an investigation into your 10 assets.

11                  What else has happened in the 12 bankruptcy since it was filed other than an 13 investigation into your assets?

14                  A         I don't know all the terms
15 and all the stuff, I can't speak in any type
16 of competent form to that.

17                  Q         Can you identify anything
18 else that's happened specifically in your
19 bankruptcy?

20                  A         You've got to stay
21 competitive and always innovative in media
22 to even stay where you're at, so we have not
23 been innovating for almost two years.

24                  So it's -- it's had a major
25 detrimental effect on the operation. And so

Page 18

1                    ALEXANDER E. JONES

2     I can speak to the fact that basically we
3     can't even send reporters most of the time
4     somewhere to cover some big event, and
5     that's our bread and butter, that's what we
6     do.

7                    It's like sending a football
8     team out on the field without pads and 9     helmets.

10                  So, it's been -- basically
11    train wrecked this operation. It's still 12    operating and continuing to operate, but 13    it's -- I mean, my only thing I can speak to 14    is as a media guy that knows media, that 15    it's been very detrimental to the operation.

16                  Q         And so are you hoping when
17    you and Free Speech get out of bankruptcy
18    the business will improve?

19                  A         I just hope we can stabilize,
20    because on the trajectory we are on, if this 21    continues, you guys would have killed the 22    golden know goose, which I know several of 23    the lawyers stated was their --

24                  Q         What do you mean by the 25    golden goose?

Page 19

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES

2                   THE WITNESS: Well, I mean
3                   the Plaintiffs' lawyers in
4                   Connecticut and Texas said don't
5                   support him, don't buy his products,
6                   we don't want money, we want to
7                   silence him.

8                   But then the Plaintiffs
9                   themselves said they want money.

10                  So I wonder if the lawyers
11                  are working against their clients,
12                  or who's being disingenuous, but we 13                  have the videos of Connecticut and 14                  Texas saying we don't want money,
15                  don't support him, don't give him
16                  money, we want to shut him down,
17                  don't ever let him operate again.

18                  And then they are telling me
19                  we want you to stay on air and make 20                  money, so I don't know what the 21                  truth is.

22                  Q            But you just said you guys
23                  would have killed the golden goose.

24                  Who is the golden goose?

25                  A           This operation can make --

Page 20

1                    ALEXANDER E. JONES
2        could have made money. I don't know -- and
3        that's the point I'm making is the
4        Plaintiffs' lawyers in Connecticut and
5        Texas, I can send you the video if you would 6        like it, got up in the court and in the 7        courthouse steps and said they don't want
8        money, they want to silence us.

9                    And separately, I'm saying
10      that's killing what could pay them.

11                  Q        And you referred to the 12      golden goose, Mr. Jones. Are you the golden 13      goose?

14                  A        I mean, clearly I could go
15      other places and make money, but they are 16      trying to destroy this operation, in their
17      own words, and then obsessing over how much
18      money it's making and complaining about it
19      when it isn't making as much money as it
20      could.

21                  Q        That's helpful, but that
22      wasn't my question. My question was you
23      referred to the golden goose. Are you the 24      golden goose?

25                  A        I mean, I would say just in

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES
2 general, if you're trying to silence someone
3 and a media operation they have yeah, that
4 in general is the golden goose.

5                   Q         And the someone being
6 yourself?

7                   MR. LEMMON: I object to the
8 form?

9                   A         Yeah, I'm the main driver
10 around here. The point is that they said
11 they want to silence me and my operation.
12 That in tandem is the thing that's paying 13 the bills.

14                  And, so it's very -- it's bad
15 faith to sit here and then ask me make more
16 money, how much money you pay us, while out
17 of one side of your mouth you are saying you
18 want to silence us.

19                  Q         So, do you consider yourself
20 the golden goose because you think you're 21 paying the bills?

22                  A         Well, I don't think. I mean,
23 I know, yeah, if I left here it would fall
24 apart.

25                  Q         During the bankruptcy case,

Page 22

1                    ALEXANDER E. JONES

2        how often have you received updates on it?

3                    A            They try to give me updates
4        all the time, but it's depressing, and I
5        look at it, then I just move on. I don't 6        understand it all.

7                    It's basically like
8        hieroglyphs, and I just -- it's all a big 9        blur.

10                  Q            You understand you have 11       proposed a Plan of Reorganization in this
12       bankruptcy case?

13                  A            Again, I'm not a lawyer, this 14       is all hieroglyphs to me, but I think we had 15       one plan, now we have an amended plan, but I
16       can't speak to that.

17                  I'm trying to be helpful, but
18       maybe I'm saying it wrong.

19                  Q            Is it true you know nothing
20       about the plan you have proposed other than 21       the fact you've agreed to it?

22                  MS. DRIVER: Objection, form.

23                  I'm also going to instruct the 24       witness to the extent the only way
25       you can answer that question is to

Page 23

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES
2                   reveal attorney-client privilege,
3                   I'm going to instruct you not to
4                   answer.

5                   A           I mean, I don't even -- I
6                   mean, I think if -- I don't understand the
7                   question.

8                   What is --

9                   Q           Let's make it a bit more
10                  tangible. If you could, open I believe your
11                  counsel has some binders there, and if I
12                  could ask you to turn to tab 44.

13                  We are going to mark it as
14                  Exhibit 1.

15                  A           I don't have any documents.

16                  MS. DRIVER: It's okay. So,
17                  just for the record, there were two 18                  big, very large binders that were 19                  delivered to my office.

20                  Thank you very much, Paul. I
21                  have not gone over them with the 22                  client, nor did I tell the client
23                  that you sent -- sent me documents.

24                  So this is the first time
25                  he's seeing this.

Page 24

1                    ALEXANDER E. JONES

2                    THE WITNESS: What is this?

3                    MR. PATERSON: Thank you,

4                    Vickie.

5                    MS. DRIVER: What I
6 understand this to be is a binder of
7 documents that Paul may want to ask
8 you questions about.

9                    A         What page is it?

10                  MS. DRIVER: I think you said
11 tab 1, is that correct?

12                  Q         Tab 44, it's going to be
13 Exhibit 1.

14                  (The above described document was
15 marked Exhibit 1 for identification as of
16 this date.)

17                  MR. LEMMON: Paul, did you
18 send those documents out to the rest
19 of us?

20                  A         We are going to put them in 21 the Exhibit Share software. The link should 22 have come through. We are also going to put 23 them up on the screen.

24                  MR. LEMMON: I haven't seen
25 the link, perhaps I missed it. Have

Page 25

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES

2                   you already sent it?

3                   MR. PATERSON: It should be,
4                   when you went to log into the 5                   deposition program, it should have
6                   given you a link to Exhibit Share,
7                   but we are going to put it up on the 8                   screen as well.

9                   A           I have no idea what this is.

10                  MR. LEMMON: I would prefer
11                  to be able to being assess the 12                  documents.

13                  Can you resend the link?

14                  MR. PATERSON: Let's go off
15                  the record for a minute.

16                  THE VIDEOGRAPHER: The time
17                  is 2:55 p.m. We are off the record.

18                  (At this point in the proceedings
19                  there was a recess, after which the
20                  deposition continued as follows:)

21                  THE VIDEOGRAPHER: The time
22                  is 3:04 p.m., we are back on the
23                  record.

24                  Q           So, Mr. Jones, you should 25                  have in front of you a document we have

Page 26

1                    ALEXANDER E. JONES

2 marked as Exhibit 1.

3                    Do you see that's an e-mail
4 from Ms. Driver, your counsel?

5                    A                Yeah, I can read it, this
6 works, but I will note that if you need more
7 than four hours --

8                    THE WITNESS: I'll work with
9                    you, then. That may sound strange,
10                  but doesn't have knowledge about the 11                  plan other than his agreement to it,
12                  unless everyone repeats the same
13                  questions.

14                  Q                That's all I was going to ask
15                  you about, which is, is that a correct
16                  statement, that you do not have knowledge
17                  about your bankruptcy plan other than the 18                  fact that you have agreed to it?

19                  A                I mean, I don't -- I trust my 20                  counsel. I have seen the numbers, I think
21                  we can probably do that, it's still hard.

22                  I mean, I would say in
23                  general I don't understand all this stuff,
24                  so I would say yeah, in general, it's a true
25                  statement.

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES

2                   Q           Have you ever read your
3                   bankruptcy plan?

4                   A           Yes, she made me read it
5                   again yesterday, both the old one and the 6                   amended one, if that's what it's called.

7                   Q           And just focusing on the one
8                   that's been filed, did you read it before it
9                   was filed?

10                  A           Yes.

11                  Q           And so, do you know what it
12                  says?

13                  A           Well, I read it, we had like
14                  an hour meeting about it months and months
15                  ago.

16                  Then there was a new one, and
17                  I hadn't seen it in months. We reviewed it
18                  again yesterday, so you know, I mean --

19                  Q           And do you consider that to 20                  be an important document?

21                  A           Yes.

22                  Q           Do you consider these
23                  bankruptcy proceedings to be important?

24                  A           Yes, I do.

25                  Q           And do you remember signing

Page 28

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES

2       your plan of reorganization?

3                   A         Anything that's signed, I
4       signed, I mean, I sign a lot of documents,
5       but I remember signing, yeah.

6                   Q         Have you talked to anyone
7       other than your lawyer about your bankruptcy
8       plan?

9                   MS. DRIVER: I'm just going
10       to object to the extent this calls
11       for any attorney-client privileged
12       information, just making sure that
13       we are -- when you say lawyer, I
14       just want to make sure he remembers.

15                  Shelby Jordan is also his
16       lawyer, Christy Stevenson is also
17       his lawyer, David Minton is also his 18       lawyer.

19                  Q         Other than that group of 20       people and Ms. Driver, have you spoken with 21       anyone about your bankruptcy plan?

22                  A         I have spoken to plenty of 23       people about how I'm in bankruptcy, but not 24       about my plan.

25                  Q         In general terms,

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES
2 financially, what do you understand you
3 would keep under the plan that's currently 4 being proposed?

5                   A         My non-exempt -- my exempt
6 property.

7                   Q         And in terms of your future
8 income, what would you keep under the plan
9 you have proposed?

10                  A         I don't have it in front of
11 me, but I think like almost all the money
12 out of Free Speech goes to pay the 13 creditors, and I get a percentage of 14 whatever I'm able to bring in outside of
15 that.

16                  Q         And what is that percentage?

17                  A         I think a third goes to the 18 IRS, a third to the plan and a third to me.

19                  Q         And so you effectively get 20 50/50 after tax with creditors for some
21 period of time under your plan, right?

22                  A         I'm going from memory, but I
23 believe that's the answer.

24                  Q         And in terms of money, how 25 much money would you receive under the plan

Page 30

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES

2       you have proposed?

3                   MS. DRIVER: Objection, form.

4       A           I mean, are you talking about
5       a salary or are you talking about what I
6       could potentially make?

7       Q           Sitting here today, would
8       your salary and everything else combined,
9       how much money do you expect to get under 10      the bankruptcy plan you have proposed?

11      A           I don't have it in front of 12      me, I don't know.

13      Q           And without having the 14      document in front of you, do you have any 15      idea how much money you could expect to 16      receive under your bankruptcy plan?

17      MS. DRIVER: Objection, asked
18      and answered.

19      A           Yeah, I don't know the answer
20      to that.

21      Q           We are going to talk a bit
22      more about the provisions of the plan.

23                  You're aware that many of the 24      Sandy Hook Plaintiffs hold non-dischargeable
25      claims, correct?

Page 31

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES

2                   MS. DRIVER: Objection, calls
3                   for a legal conclusion.

4                   A         So I don't answer that?

5                   MS. DRIVER: There are
6                   multiple problems with that
7                   question.

8                   You can answer to the extent
9                   you understand it.

10                  A         I have seen that in the news.
11                  I don't know what it means.

12                  Q         Do you have any understanding
13                  of what it means to hold a non-dischargeable
14                  claim?

15                  A         Yeah, I guess they can follow
16                  me around for the rest of my life.

17                  Q         So, notwithstanding your 18                  bankruptcy, they can proceed with their
19                  claim, right?

20                  MS. DRIVER: Objection.

21                  Q         After you come out of
22                  bankruptcy?

23                  A         I don't know the details.

24                  Q         Are you familiar with the ten
25                  year injunction in the plan?

Page 32

1                    ALEXANDER E. JONES

2                    A            I can't speak to that with
3 any competency.

4                    Q            Do you know that for
5 ten-years, Plaintiffs who do not opt into a
6 settlement with you will be unable to
7 enforce their non-dischargeable claims
8 against you?

9                    A            I really don't know the 10 details of that.

11                  Q            So you don't know that if the 12 Connecticut Plaintiffs don't agree to your 13 plan, then under your plan they won't be 14 able to enforce their judgments for ten
15 years?

16                  You don't know that?

17                  MS. DRIVER: Objection to the 18 form of the question. I think it
19 might be a little bit misleading to
20 the Connecticut Plaintiffs.

21                  It's the non-electing
22 Plaintiffs, that might be helpful.

23                  A            My coping stratgey with this,
24 I don't understand this stuff, and I just --
25 I'm kind of like smiley, caught in a

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES

2       riptide.

3                   I don't know where I'm going,
4                   I don't understand all the people, all the 5                   groups.

6                   I've never talked to you
7                   before, I have no idea what you're talking
8                   about.

9                   Q           Let's go with your counsel's
10                  suggestion. Do you understand that for ten 11                  years non-electing Plaintiffs will be unable 12                  to enforce the non-dischargeable claims
13                  against you?

14                  A           I don't know what that means.

15                  Q           Is it important?

16                  A           What does that mean?

17                  MS. DRIVER: He will have to 18                  explain it.

19                  Q           Let me ask you again. Is it
20                  important -- different question, sorry. Is 21                  it important to you that creditors not be
22                  able to pursue you for ten years?

23                  MS. DRIVER: Objection, form.

24                  A           I don't understand.

25                  Q           So, let's take a look at your

Page 34

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES
2 plan, we are going to mark it, it's tab 1 in
3 the binder you have. We are going to mark
4 it as Exhibit 2.

5                   (The above described document was
6 marked Exhibit 2 for identification as of
7 this date.)

8                   A         I don't have enough room
9 here.

10                  Okay, I've got it.

11                  Q         We will bring that up on the 12 screen for everyone.

13                  If you take a look at page 20
14 --

15                  MS. DRIVER: Are we going
16 with the bottom numbers or the top
17 numbers for the filing?

18                  MR. PATERSON: We are going
19 with the bottom ones?

20                  MS. DRIVER: 20.

21                  Q         You should be hitting 5.06
22 , general unsecured claims, Class 6. You see
23 that?

24                  A         I am on it.

25                  Q         If you look about six lines

Page 35

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES
2       down from the bottom, just under the Y, you
3       will see, "Non-electing Plaintiffs will be 4       enjoined against collecting against the
5       Debtor during the plan term."

6                   Do you see that?

7                   A           Y?

8                   MS. DRIVER: Under Y.

9                   THE WITNESS: Show me.

10                  MR. PATERSON: About six
11       lines up from the bottom.

12                  MS. DRIVER: I am looking for 13       the witness, just for expediency.

14                  A           I see it. "Non-electing 15       Plaintiffs will be enjoined against 16       collecting against the Debtor during the 17       plan term.

18                  "With such non-electing
19       Plaintiffs to the extent such holder and 20       non-dischargeable claim collect against the 21       Debtor non-exempt assets under which claims
22       are otherwise stayed."

23                  I have no idea what that
24       means.

25                  Q           So, you understand the plan

Page 36

1                    ALEXANDER E. JONES
2 term is ten years, correct? You know your
3 plan lasts for ten years, right, Mr. Jones?
4                    A I remember five years and ten
5 years.

6                    Q Okay, so you've seen --
7                    MS. DRIVER: Somebody in the 8 middle of the depo telling somebody
9 they are in the middle of a depo,
10 probably ought to go on mute. Thank
11 you.

12                  Q So, if you see, this refers
13 to the plan term. If we go to page 12, you
14 see, "The plan term shall mean the period
15 from the effective date through 120 months
16 from the effective date."

17                  Do you see that?

18                  A 1.65?

19                  Q 1.65.

20                  A I see that.

21                  Q So your plan term is as 22 defined ten years, right?

23                  A Yes.

24                  Q Unless it's extended?

25                  A I see that.

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES

2                   Q         So under your plan, creditors
3 with non-dischargeable claims who don't
4 support the plan cannot enforce those claims
5 for ten years, right?

6                   MS. DRIVER: Objection, form.

7                   A         I'm not a lawyer, I don't
8 know.

9                   Q         Why would you want a ten year
10 period during which creditors cannot enforce
11 claims against you?

12                  MS. DRIVER: I'm going to
13 object. To the extent the witness
14 can answer this without using
15 information that was gained in a
16 conversation with me and is 17 privileged, then I'm going to 18 instruct him not to answer.

19                  THE WITNESS: Vickie, I don't
20 even understand it. We are doing
21 ten years so I can pay it. I can't
22 pay that much in five years.

23                  That's why we did that,
24 right?

25                  MS. DRIVER: Let him know

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES

2                   that.

3                   A           We did that because I need
4                   ten years to pay that much. It's still hard
5                   to do.

6                   Q           And why is it that during the 7                   ten years creditors with non-dischargeable
8                   claims shouldn't be able to enforce them?

9                   A           I don't understand what that
10                  means. But if I've got a plan to try to pay
11                  people -- I don't understand what that
12                  means.

13                  Q           So you don't know that during 14                  the ten year plan term if Plaintiffs don't 15                  opt in, they won't be able to pursue their
16                  claims against you?

17                  MS. DRIVER: I think where we
18                  are going here, Alex --

19                  A           Why would they not opt in to 20                  get the money?

21                  MS. DRIVER: Hold on.

22                  A           I want to pay them.

23                  MS. DRIVER: If they are
24                  going to enforce your claim, what I
25                  think he's trying to say is to

Page 39

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES
2                   enforce their claim, they would be
3                   suing you and chasing you for money.

4                   So how are you going to pay
5                   this kind of money under this plan
6                   while a bunch of people are
7                   continuing to sue you?

8                   THE WITNESS: No, but I'm
9                   paying them.

10                  MS. DRIVER: I know. He's 11                  asking you about the document.

12                  MR. PATERSON: I'm happy to 13                  ask the questions today.

14                  MS. DRIVER: What I'm going
15                  to let you know, Paul, is the way
16                  you're asking the questions and 17                  where you're going is just getting 18                  you to exactly what I said in the 19                  e-mail, which is Exhibit 1, which is 20                  he doesn't know anything about the 21                  details of this plan.

22                  And if you would like to have
23                  a deposition with him that lasts
24                  more than the time today -- please
25                  move on to something -- time is

Page 40

1                    ALEXANDER E. JONES

2                    getting away.

3                    A                I'm trying to be honest, I
4                    don't know what the hell he's talking about.

5                    Mr. Jones, is what your
6                    counsel just said accurate?

7                    Q                Is it right to say you don't
8                    know the details of the plan?

9                    A                I mean, I don't have a law
10                  degree. I've read this before, she made me
11                  read it yesterday. But I don't know what it
12                  means.

13                  I know I agreed to try to pay
14                  a bunch of money to Plaintiffs. That's all
15                  I know.

16                  Q                But is it right to say you
17                  don't know the details of the plan?

18                  A                Yeah, I don't understand all
19                  this legalese. I'm not a bankruptcy lawyer.

20                  Q                And so, from your
21                  perspective, would you care if creditors
22                  could enforce their claims against you the 23                  minute you emerge from bankruptcy?

24                  MS. DRIVER: Objection, form.

25                  To the extent you understand

Page 41

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES

2                   his question you can answer.

3                   THE WITNESS: What does that
4                   mean, emerge from bankruptcy? What
5                   is he talking about?

6                   Q         You understand that at some
7                   point if your plan is confirmed shortly
8                   after you will get out of bankruptcy, you
9                   know that, right?

10                  A         I thought I was filing a plan
11                  to pay the Plaintiffs, but yeah, okay.

12                  Q         So would you care if, for 13                  example, later this year, if the Connecticut
14                  Plaintiffs don't opt into the plan, they
15                  could go and seize your assets, would you
16                  care about that?

17                  A         Well, I wouldn't do this plan
18                  if that was the case. If I do this thing,
19                  they still come after me?

20                  MS. DRIVER: That's not what 21                  he's saying.

22                  A         I have no idea what the hell
23                  you're talking about.

24                  Q         Mr. Jones, are you planning
25                  to work forever?

Page 42

1                    ALEXANDER E. JONES

2                    A         No, I don't live forever,

3         I'll be dead by 75, on average.

4                    Q         When do you plan to work
5 until?

6                    A         I don't know the answer to
7 that question. I don't know.

8                    Q         In ten years, how old are you
9 going to be?

10                  A         60.

11                  Q         And what do you expect to be 12 doing in ten years time?

13                  A         A million -- I have no idea.

14                  MR. PATERSON: Will FSS be 15 operating in ten years?

16                  A         Well, I mean, if I sign onto 17 this plan, I guess it better be.

18                  Q         How about 15 years?

19                  A         I mean, this is all
20 hypothetical, so I can't really give you
21 answers to hypothetical questions.

22                  Q         In the sense you don't know
23 what you're going to be doing in 15 years'
24 time, right?

25                  MS. DRIVER: Objection, form.

Page 43

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES

2                   A         These are pretty open-ended
3 questions. Yeah, I have no idea.

4                   MS. DRIVER: I want to just
5 point out for the record, you're
6 asking what he's going to be doing,
7 not what he intends to be doing,
8 so --

9                   MR. PATERSON: Understood. I
10 understand what I'm asking.

11                  Q         Are you aware that if the 12 Connecticut Plaintiffs do not support your 13 plan, you are still going to owe $1 billion
14 in ten years time?

16 form.

17                  MS. DRIVER: I object to the
18 form.

19                  A         I mean, all that is pie in 20 the sky. My whole career I've not made $100
21 million. So it might as well be $50
22 trillion.

23                  I'm trying to bring forward
24 and make an agreement to try to like just 25 move past this, so all this talk about

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES
2 billions of dollars is, to me, I'm not --
3 I'm not Elon Musk or Bill Gates.
4                   So to me, it's -- it's really
5 hypothetical.

6                   Q         Because you are never going
7 to pay back $1 billion, is that right?

8                   MS. DRIVER: Objection, form.

9                   A         Well, the idea that you can
10 ask somebody that's never made more than $80
11 million in their whole 30 year career,
12 gross, or take home, to pay billions of 13 dollars, just, it's preposterous.

14                   So the idea that I won't pay
15 my debts, it's like cruel and unusual
16 punishment, and not a lawyer, but it's like
17 saying can I sprout wings and fly to the 18 moon tonight.

19                   Like we won't -- the judge
20 says you have to sprout wings and fly to the 21 moon tonight, I can't sprout wings and fly
22 to the moon tonight, it really enters the 23 comedy zone.

24                   But that's like here is the 25 money I've got, I'll deal with you, and

Page 45

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES
2    that's what I'm doing is being a real person
3    here.

4                   Q         So, sitting here today, what
5    do you plan to do if in ten years time you
6    still owe $1 billion?

7                   A         I'll be quite frank with you,
8    and the older I get, the more stuff I have
9    to deal with. I'm thinking one week ahead,
10   I'm not worried about ten years from now.

11                  I have no idea, this is to me
12    just like -- I mean you, ask me questions I
13    can't answer.

14                  Q         Do you expect to file for 15    bankruptcy again?

16                  MS. DRIVER: Objection, form.
17                  Don't answer that question.

18                  A         Yeah, I have never thought
19    about that.

20                  MS. DRIVER: I'm just going
21    to instruct you not to answer.

22                  Q         Are you accepting your
23    counsel's instruction?

24                  MS. DRIVER: I never thought
25    about that. He can say --

Page 46

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES

2                   A         I never thought about that.

3                   I'll take my counsel's advice.

4                   Q         And --

5                   MR. PATERSON: And Vickie,
6                   what's the basis for that objection?

7                   MS. DRIVER: He said that
8                   he's never thought about that, and 9                   you got that answer.

10                  My request for him not to 11                  answer was not entered in enough
12                  time for him to not say what he 13                  said.

14                  Q         Okay.

15                  What would the point be of 16                  having a bankruptcy plan now, if in ten
17                  years' time you are again in the position
18                  when you can't pay your debts?

19                  MS. DRIVER: I'm going to
20                  object. To the extent you cannot
21                  answer this question without
22                  revealing attorney-client privilege.
23                  I'm going to instruct you not to
24                  answer.

25                  To the extent you can, you

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES

2                 may answer.

3                 A             Yeah, I can't answer that
4     question. It will violate attorney-client
5     privilege.

6                 Q             Do you have any understanding
7     of that yourself or not, other than what you
8     have learned from your lawyer?

9                 A             I can't reveal that 10   information without violating
11   attorney-client privilege.

12                Q             And so I guess my question is 13   other than what your lawyers told you, do
14   you have any understanding of why you would 15   emerge from bankruptcy now only to be in the 16   same situation in ten years' time?

17                A             Same answer, attorney-client
18   privilege.

19                Q             Do you know how long the 20   Connecticut Plaintiffs' judgments can be 21   enforced against you?

22                A             For infinity into all known
23   galaxies.

24                Q             You are not aware there is 25   any time limit on that?

Page 48

1                    ALEXANDER E. JONES

2                    A         I just told you, infinity.

3                    Q         So, does that mean you intend
4 to allow the Connecticut Plaintiffs to
5 enforce their judgments in perpetuity?

6                    MS. DRIVER: Objection, form.

7                    A         Look, whatever they want to
8 do, they can enjoy themselves.

9                    Q         So, if there is a time limit
10 on how long they can enforce those 11 judgments, is that something you expect to 12 rely upon?

13                  A         Again, yeah, I will. I am
14 not competent to answer your questions. I
15 have no idea what you're saying.

16                  Q         You are familiar with the 17 concept of there being time limits in which
18 people can bring claims, are you familiar
19 with that concept?

20                  A         Yes.

21                  Q         And if there is a time limit
22 on how long the Connecticut Plaintiffs can
23 enforce their judgments, is that something
24 you intend to rely upon?

25                  A         No, I do understand that it's

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES
2       non-dischargeable, according to the federal
3       court, so that's already a decided thing.

4                   I'm not debating that with
5       you. I'm not going to sit there and discuss 6       how many angels can dance on the head of the 7       pin. At least I know that.

8                   Q           If someone owed you money,
9       would you want to be paid now or in ten
10      years' time?

11                  A           Well, first off, if somebody
12       owed me money, I want to know how much money
13       they had.

14                  If it's money owed me, some 15       crazy amount of money that has just been 16       made up by a kangaroo court, I would go to 17       the person and say how much money do you
18       actually have?

19                  I would actually want the 20       money they had.

21                  But if we are living in 22       fantasy land and people want money that
23       doesn't exist such, as the GDP that exists,
24       that's what the Plaintiffs asked for, $2.7
25       trillion I would laugh at them, because its

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES

2       Alice in Wonderland tea party stuff.

3                   Unless you guys have a
4       crystal ball, am I going to be the King of
5       the world or something, and you know I'm 6       about to have trillions of dollars, because
7       this is cuckoo, this is all cuckoo.

8                   Q       And if someone owed you
9       money, would you want to know how much money
10      they would have for their entire life or 11      only for a couple of years?

12                  A       I mean, that's an academic 13      question. I can't answer questions like
14      that.

15                  Q       So you are not able to answer
16      that question?

17                  A       A year is a lifetime in this
18      world now. So I have no -- I have no -- I
19      have no radar out very far. It's all just 20      speculative, it's all science fiction;
21      fiction.

22                  Q       Going back to my question, I
23      think you gave me a more general answer to 24      it, but if someone owed you money, would you
25      want to be paid now or in ten years' time?

Page 51

1                    ALEXANDER E. JONES

2                    A         I would want the capacity
3        they had to pay to get the percentage I
4        could get.

5                    Q         Would you prefer to get the 6        money you were owed sooner or later?

7                    MS. DRIVER: I'm going to
8        object. This has been asked and 9        answered. He's answered it to the 10      best of his ability.

11                  A         Yeah, this is all like magic,
12       hypothetical, Captain Kangaroo stuff. I
13       can't answer questions that make no sense.

14                  Q         So you think that whether or 15       not you would prefer to get money sooner or 16       later is a magic hypothetical question?

17                  A         It all depends on what the 18       deal was or what the amount was. You can't 19       just speculate.

20                  Q         All the other things being 21       aside, putting aside the other terms of the 22       deal, would you want to get paid sooner or 23       later?

24                  A         It would depend on the 25       amount.

Page 52

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES

2                   Q                 And assuming the amount was
3       the same, would you want to get paid sooner
4       or get paid later?

5                   MS. DRIVER: I'm going to
6       object, just I'm going to object to 7       this line of questioning. It's been 8       asked and answered.

9                   Move on to something else,
10      please.

11                  MR. PATERSON: It's been 12       asked, it certainly hasn't been 13       answered, so I will repeat the
14       question.

15                  A                 Maybe they want to defer
16       their taxes maybe later? Up to the 17       individual. I can't answer that.

18                  MS. DRIVER: It's also like
19       there is an election to get paid
20       earlier in the plan.

21                  If you want to ask if he was 22       a creditor in this plan and whether 23       or not whether he would take the 24       election in this plan, that is
25       relevant for this deposition.

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES

2                   Vickie, you will be free to ask him
3                   questions at the end if you want to.

4                   I am just asking a simple one
5                   here.

6                   Q            Which is that if there is a
7                   set amount of money, would you prefer to 8                   receive that amount of money sooner or 9                   later? And if you --

10                  A            I don't know.

11                  Q            Are you aware that under your 12                  plan the Plaintiffs who settle with you get
13                  the minimum amount of their proportionate
14                  share of $5.5 million, are you aware of
15                  that?

16                  MS. DRIVER: Objection, form.

17                  A            I don't know what you're
18                  talking about.

19                  Q            Do you know that under your
20                  plan there is a certain guarantee of $5.5
21                  million a year?

22                  A            For who, what?

23                  Q            Do you know that under your 24                  plan there is a certain guarantee you're 25                  providing $5.5 million a year?

Page 54

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES

2                   MS. DRIVER: If you would
3                   like I'm happy to point him to that
4                   part in the plan and he may be able
5                   to answer

6                   Q         I'm just asking in the 7                   abstract to start with?

8                   A         I don't remember, what is it?

9                   MS. DRIVER: I can't help
10                  you, if he wants to help you.

11                  Q         Do you understand that there
12                  is a guarantee in your plan subject to its 13                  terms of $5.5 million a year?

14                  A         Is that in the free speech
15                  plan?

16                  MS. DRIVER: No.

17                  Q         My question, Mr. Jones, you
18                  either know or you don't?

19                  A         I don't know.

20                  Q         Okay.

21                  So, let's take your counsel
22                  up on her suggestion of taking a look at the 23                  plan, so we will go back to Exhibit 2, which 24                  I think is tab 1 in your binder.

25                  If we start on page 10, you

Page 55

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES
2   see on page 10 there is a minimum annual
3   distribution and a figure of $5.5 million.
4   Do you see that?

5                   A         Yes.

6                   Q         And the minimum annual 7   distribution in particular is defined as the 8   Plaintiff's pro rata share for such
9   Plaintiff multiplied by $5.5 million.

10                  Do you see that?

11                  A         Yes.

12                  Q         And so then we will take a
13   look at page 19.

14                  At the top it says, "The 15   electing Plaintiffs," you see at the bottom
16   of page 18, "Each electing Plaintiff shall 17   receive cash in the amount of," and in 18   number 2, "from the effective date until the 19   year in which the payment trigger occurs,
20   the greater of such electing Plaintiff's
21   minimum annual distribution or," then there
22   is some other text."

23                  Do you see that?

24                  A         Yes.

25                  Q         And so settling Plaintiffs

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES
2       get a minimum of their proportionate share
3       of $5.5 million a year, is that right?
4       A       Yes, I guess that says that.
5       Q       And what happens if you make
6       less than $5.5 million in a particular year?
7       A       I don't remember the details.
8       Q       Do you have any plan for how
9       to satisfy that obligation if you make less
10      than $5.5 million?
11                  MS. DRIVER: Objection, form.
12      A       I don't remember.
13      Q       Do you think you will always
14      earn more than $5.5 million a year?
15      A       That's like an estimation,
16      that's kind of on the outside, it's on the 17      extreme end. I would hope we can do it.
18                  No business person a year out
19      knows what's going to happen. It's a
20      projection in good faith. We don't know.
21      Q       So, if it's extreme, as you
22      see it, what happens if you can't make the 23      $5.5 million a year?
24                  How are you going to make
25      these distributions?

Page 57

1                    ALEXANDER E. JONES

2                    A         I don't know.

3                    Q         Let's move on to your
4 Disclosure Statement.

5                    Are you familiar with the
6 Disclosure Statement that you filed in this 7 case?

8                    A         I remember something about
9 it.

10                  MR. PATERSON: Let's mark, we 11                  are going to mark Exhibit 3. It's 12                  tab 3 in your binder, which is the 13                  Disclosure Statement.

14                  (The above described document was
15                  marked Exhibit 3 for identification as of
16                  this date.)

17                  A         This is?

18                  MS. DRIVER: Yes.

19                  A         All right.

20                  Q         And we will put that up on 21                  the screen for everyone.

22                  Do you recognize this to be,
23                  take a minute to look through it if you
24                  want, your Disclosure Statement?

25                  A         Yeah, I remember this.

1                    ALEXANDER E. JONES

2                    Q         So I take it you've read this
3 document before?

4                    A         A while back, yeah.

5                    Q         And did you sign this
6 document?

7                    A         I think so, yeah.

8                    Q         And what steps did you take
9 to ensure this Disclosure Statement was 10 accurate?

11                  A         I just let the accountants
12 and everybody into all my stuff, gave them
13 full access to everything. I'm not an
14 accountant, I'm not a lawyer.

15                  Q         So I understand what you let 16 the accountants do, but what steps did you
17 personally take to make sure the information
18 in here was accurate?

19                  A         There were lawyers, CPAs,
20 accountants involved in all of it, so I just 21 went off their professional reputation. I
22 looked at it.

23                  Q         Do you have any understanding
24 of what the purpose of this document is?

25                  A         No.

Page 59

1                            ALEXANDER E. JONES

2                            Q                 So let's take a look at page
3                            35.

4                            MS. DRIVER: I think he's
5                            going to the top of the page.

6                            Q                 Just looking at the heading
7                            right before "D, Cramdown" at the top of the 8                            page, just looking at that paragraph above
9                            it, do you see it says starts, do you see
10                          the paragraph starting, "The Debtor also 11                          believes that the feasibility requirement
12                          for confirmation of the plan is satisfied"?

13                          A                 Yes.

14                          Q                 Do you see that?

15                          And you see that at the end
16                          of that sentence it says, "and all creditors 17                          will ultimately be paid in full."

18                          Do you see that?

19                          A                 Yes.

20                          Q                 That's not true, is it,
21                          Mr. Jones?

22                          A                 They are welcome to opt into 23                          it and they will be paid. That's their 24                          decision.

25                          Q                 And you were just telling me

Page 60

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES
2 before how it was pie in the sky to think
3 that you could ever pay anywhere near $1
4 billion.

5                   Do you recall that testimony?

6                   A         Again, I'm not going to argue
7 this, I don't understand it. I think it's 8 what we can pay.

9                   They can opt into getting
10 paid if they want to, and I would imagine
11 they would, but I don't understand all this,
12 so.

13                  But yeah, it's my intent to 14 try to pay what I can pay.

15                  Q         So my question was just
16 whether you recalled your prior testimony
17 about how it was pie in the sky to suggest
18 you could pay $1 billion.

19                  Do you recall that testimony?

20                  A         I think it is pie in the sky.
21                  I think this is to pay what 22 the company can produce and pay them, that's 23 my point, but I didn't say that was pie in 24 the sky.

25                  Q         Okay. And when it says, "and

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES

2       all creditors will ultimately be paid in
3       full," you are not proposing to pay $1
4       billion, right?

5                   A       I'm proposing to pay what I
6       can pay, and I would imagine they would opt
7       in. That's the sane thing to do.

8                   Q       And that's nowhere near $1
9       billion, right?

10                  A       Or a quadrillion, no.

11                  Q       Are you aware that you owe
12       duties to creditors of your estate?

13                  MS. DRIVER: Objection, form.

14                  A       I don't know what that means.

15                  Q       I'm going to move on to a
16       different topic now, which is your income
17       and expenses.

18                  Are you familiar with 19       projections that have been given to 20       creditors in this case?

21                  MS. DRIVER: Objection, form.

22                  A       I would have to know what
23       you're talking about.

24                  Q       Okay, so let's do that. If 25       you take a look at tab 4, which is Exhibit

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES

2       4.

3                   We will just bring it up on 4                   the screen.

5                   Do you recognize this
6                   document?

7                   MS. DRIVER: I am just
8                   turning to the second page for him.

9                   (The above described document was
10                  marked Exhibit 4 for identification as of
11                  this date.)

12                  A           No.

13                  Q           So, you've never seen this
14                  set of projections before?

15                  A           I'm saying this all looks the 16                  same to me, to be honest, big ass giant
17                  stacks of numbers. They don't look familiar
18                  to me.

19                  Q           Have you ever seen any 20                  forecast of your anticipated earnings and 21                  expenses over the next ten years?

22                  A           Yes.

23                  Q           And what forecast have you
24                  seen?

25                  A           I don't -- I've seen a bunch

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES
2       of stuff like this, it all looks the same to
3       me.

4                   I told you, I'm sure I've 5       seen a bunch of stuff like this. I can't
6       remember.

7                   Q       So, did anyone ever sit down
8       with you with a document like this and ask
9       you to review it?

10                  A       Yes, I've been in a bunch of 11      meetings looking at stuff like this.

12                  Sorry, I didn't do too good
13      in school. I mean, it just looks like a
14      bunch of Chinese to me. I mean, big ass
15      things with numbers all over it.

16                  Q       And who were those meetings
17      with that you described?

18                  A       Bob Slizer, Vickie Driver. I
19      mean we have sat there and they make me sit
20      there and read this stuff.

21                  They are the professionals,
22      they know about all this stuff. It's a
23      bunch of numbers here.

24                  Q       And do you know who prepared
25      these projections we are looking at here?

1                    ALEXANDER E. JONES

2                    A            No.

3                    Q            And you said you had reviewed
4    certain projections. Who was it that had
5    prepared the ones you reviewed?

6                    A            I don't remember. I mean --

7                    Q            Bob Slizer is the person with 8    the most knowledge of your accounting, is 9    that right?

10                  A            And I hear you're deposing
11   him later. So he can answer your questions
12   then.

13                  A            Come on, man, I don't sit
14   here -- I'm not a numbers guy. This looks
15   like Martian to me.

16                  They sat there they tried to 17   make me look at it, they have tried to 18   convince me that I can pay all this money.

19                  And I can see that we have 20   made that before so maybe we can in the 21   future.

22                  But as for like looking at
23   all this stuff, income invoices, income
24   before expenses, distribution income, I have 25   no idea. I am not a math guy.

1                    ALEXANDER E. JONES

2                    Q         We will get to that, but my
3 question was just Bob Slizer is the person
4 with the most knowledge of your accounting,
5 right?

6                    A         Probably.

7                    Q         And so these sets of 8 projections we are looking at here, do you
9 have any reason to believe they are not the 10 best possible estimate of your expected
11 finances over the next ten years?

12                  A         In general I can see what we 13 made and hope that we can make as much as we 14 made before.

15                  You know, it's a very
16 competitive market, so it's the bottom line
17 that I can think I agree with.

18                  As for all the little
19 minutia, I have no idea. I don't understand
20 like accrual and this tax and state tax and 21 income -- and sales tax and all the -- you
22 look at this stuff.

23                  I'm not going to pretend to 24 know what I'm talking about. Just like
25 what, fly the space shuttle?

1                    ALEXANDER E. JONES

2                    So that's why I'm looking at
3 it and I'm, like I have no idea what half of 4 this is, so I'm not going to sit there and
5 act like I do, but --

6                    Q            When you say it's the bottom
7 line that I think I can agree with, do you
8 agree with the bottom line in these
9 projections?

10                  A            I can be shown the bottom
11 line of what we were making profit before
12 and think well, if this is close to that, or 13 even below that, because the market is tough
14 right now, yeah, I think I could probably 15 shoot for that.

16                  Legitimately, if I sign to an
17 agreement I think I can probably try to 18 raise that if the market doesn't totally 19 crash.

20                  So I can be shown what we 21 made before and then be showed this, but as 22 for minutia, I have no idea.

23                  Q            So, do you have any basis to 24 dispute the reliability of the numbers that
25 are shown in this document?

1                    ALEXANDER E. JONES

2                    A         As it was presented to me by
3 experts, I believe with the bottom line, I
4 can produce that if I work really hard.

5                    It's still tough.

6                    But I have -- but when it
7 comes to sales tax and accrual and franchise
8 taxes, I have no idea what these numbers
9 mean.

10                  And I'm not going to pretend
11 to even know, because I'm under oath here.
12 I have no idea what this means.

13                  Q         Have you reviewed projections
14 that have been provided by FSS?

15                  A         No; I believe Bob Slizer has 16 used those projections in these projections,
17 but you have to talk to him.

18                  But I have talked to him a
19 few weeks ago, and he was talking about, I
20 don't want to speak for him, like waiting
21 for projections or something, or something
22 else.

23                  So I know he gets numbers
24 from them.

25                  Is that right, Bob? -- I

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES

2 can't talk to Bob.

3                   Look, listen to this, I don't
4 know, I don't know, because I don't know --
5 I'm trying to help, but I don't know.

6                   Q         But you we can possibly 7 shortcut some questions here. Would you be 8 in a position to speak with me about the 9 details of FSS's projections if I asked you
10 about them?

11                  A         No, I know nothing about it.
12 I just know they talk to each other, that's 13 where he gets the numbers. I know that.

14                  Q         So let's talk a little about
15 the economics of your plan.

16                  You understand that under the 17 plan you have currently filed, broadly
18 speaking, you are keeping half of your
19 income until certain payments have been made
20 and then three-quarters of your income after
21 that?

22                  Do you understand that?

23                  A         Again, I'm not an accountant,
24 but no.

25                  I generate all this money for

1                    ALEXANDER E. JONES

2       Free Speech, I want to make those numbers,
3       and then if I bring extra stuff, which you
4       want to incentivize, then after taxes I get
5       half, that's a whole different bailiwick.

6                    Q       So, do you know that in the 7       next few years you would be keeping half of 8       your personal income under your plan, do you
9       know that?

10                  A       No, I would be keeping a
11      third of it.

12                  Q       And that's because a third
13      goes to taxes, a third goes to creditors,
14      and a third goes to you?

15                  A       I believe. I'm not an 16      accountant.

17                  Q       And then after certain
18      payments have been made, you would be 19      keeping a greater proportion of your income,
20      right?

21                  A       I don't quite understand
22      that, so I can't answer it.

23                  Q       You don't understand that 24      after you have paid a certain amount of 25      money to creditors you would be keeping a

Page 70

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES

2       higher proportion of your income?

3                   A           No.

4                   Q           And so is that something
5       that's important to you under your plan?

6                   A           Well, obviously I'm not going
7       to work for free, so if creditors want all
8       this money, I need to be incentivized to 9       work.

10                  Slavery was outlawed in the 11       middle of the 1860s.

12                  Q           And so is it important to you
13       that at some future time you receive a 14       greater proportion of income under your 15       plan?

16                  A           I'm not familiar with that 17       part of it; but I would obviously like to be 18       out from under this at some point.

19                  Q           So, let's take a look at --
20       go back to your plan.

21                  A           Can I just take five minutes
22       to get some more coffee?

23                  MR. PATERSON: Sure, let's go
24       off the record.

25                  THE VIDEOGRAPHER: The time

Page 71

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES

2                   is 3:45 p.m. We are off the record.

3                   (At this point in the proceedings
4                   there was a recess, after which the
5                   deposition continued as follows:)

6                   THE VIDEOGRAPHER: The time
7                   is 3:56 p.m. This is the start of 8                   media unit number 2. We are on the 9                   record.

10                  Q           Mr. Jones, we were talking
11                 earlier about how you had a ten year plan.
12                 Do you remember that?

13                  A           Yes.

14                  Q           Can you think of any reason
15                 why you should get to keep more of your 16                 income towards the end of that plan?

17                  MS. DRIVER: Objection; form.

18                  A           I had financial experts look
19                 at the precedents, and how everything works,
20                 and out in the future.

21                  I have no idea what's going
22                 to be happening in the future. A year or 23                 two out is the most I can forecast with 24                 accuracy.

25                  So I really -- I've also

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES
2 impressed upon them that I don't want to be
3 working more than ten years, so I really
4 don't know all the calculus that goes into
5 that.

6                   Q         Do you personally think it's 7 fair that you should get to keep a greater
8 proportion of your income in the second part
9 of your plan?

10                  A         I don't understand all the 11 numbers that went into it. I can't speak to
12 that.

13                  Q         You don't understand the 14 concept that you are getting a greater 15 proportion of your income in the later part
16 of the plan?

17                  A         I don't understand all the
18 calculus that went into it, so I can't speak
19 to it with any competency.

20                  Q         I'm going to take a look at 21 Exhibit 4, which are the projections that we 22 marked before the break. It's tab 4 in your 23 binder.

24                  A         We have it right here.

25                  Q         And if you look on the third

Page 73

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES

2 page of the document --

3                   MS. DRIVER: The third page?

4                   MR. PATERSON: Third page.

5                   Q         You see it starts 2025 and
6 goes through to 2034?

7                   A         Yes.

8                   Q         And the first line is Free
9 Speech payroll, and it says 2025 $1. or 10 $1,681,250.

11                  Do you see that?

12                  A         Yes.

13                  Q         And then it projects income
14 to you from various other sources. Do you
15 see that?

16                  A         Yes.

17                  Q         And then at the end of the --
18 further down in bold it says ''distributable
19 Income."

20                  Do you see that?

21                  A         Yes.

22                  Q         And a couple of lines lower
23 there is a line shaded in green saying "50
24 percent to creditors."

25                  Do you see that?

1                    ALEXANDER E. JONES

2                    A         Yes.

3                    Q         And that was what we were
4        talking about before, with after tax,
5        creditors getting half and you getting half,
6        right?

7                    A         I'll take your word for it.

8                    Q         I'm not testifying today,
9        Mr. Jones. I'm interested in what your word
10      is.

11                  A         I don't know.

12                  Q         And do you understand the 13      amount shown here, the 50 percent to 14      creditors that's being paid, to be after
15      taxes?

16                  A         Yes.

17                  Q         And so you understand that 18      the other part that you are keeping is the 19      equivalent of this 50 percent to creditors
20      shown here?

21                  A         Yes.

22                  Q         And that's after taxes as 23      well?

24                  A         I would imagine we are paying
25      taxes.

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES

2                   Q         And the taxes come out before
3       this 50 percent to creditor line, right?

4                   A         I don't know.

5                   Q         Well, if you look up, you can
6       see lines for taxes withheld and taxes on 7       other income.

8                   Do you see those a few lines
9       up?

10                  A         I do see that, yes.

11                  Q         And so the amounts reflected 12      in green are net of taxes, right?

13                  A         I believe so.

14                  Q         And so the amount you're 15      keeping shown here would be $971,567 in
16      2025. Do you see that?

17                  A         Yes.

18                  Q         And then it rises to almost 19      $1.4 million in 2033. Do you see that?

20                  A         Yes.

21                  Q         And so that's amounts that
22      you are going to keep under your proposed
23      plan, right?

24                  A         Yeah, if you would like me to 25      work and pay you money, yeah.

1                    ALEXANDER E. JONES

2                    Q                And are you willing to work
3                    for less than $1 million a year?

4                    A                They have had to convince me
5                    to stay in this thing. So you want to sit
6                    here, it will go real fast ^.

7                    This is actually the maximum
8                    that I think I could actually pay. It's on 9                    the outside of that in this market, maybe
10                  things will change down the road. That's 11                  why there -- the details of this, that's why
12                  there is a higher number if we make more.

13                  I'm aware what you can ask
14                  for. There is a thing where it goes up,
15                  that's a pretty good deal for you g-u-y-s-

16                  THE VIDEOGRAPHER: And it's a
17                  pretty good deal for you, too,
18                  right, because you receive $1
19                  million plus a year, correct?

20                  A                Well, it's a good deal for 21                  you, because I'm going to work, people don't 22                  work for free, indentured servitude. And
23                  slavery was banned after the Civil War.

24                  Q                And what would you do if you
25                  received less than $1 million a year under a

1                    ALEXANDER E. JONES

2 Plan of Reorganization?

3                    A I mean, I don't know.

4                    MS. DRIVER: Objection to
5 form, calls for speculation.

6                    A Yeah, I don't know. Still,
7 I'm not going to do some deal where I don't
8 get paid.

9                    Q And are you prepared to get
10 paid less than $1 million a year?

11                  MS. DRIVER: Objection, form;
12 calls for speculation.

13                  A Quite frankly, I've told my 14 lawyers they need to budget security in here
15 for me.

16                  How am I supposed to go
17 around at public events that will make money
18 without security? That's not even in here.

19                  So, I agreed to a lot of 20 this, and then I did start looking at it.
21 It's not enough money to operate the level
22 I'm at and what I'm doing.

23                  So, this whole idea that I'm
24 going to go around with no security and no
25 money and all the bills I've got and

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES
2 separate legal stuff and not have basic
3 money to pay my bills is preposterous.
4                   So, so that's where I'm at.
5 I don't know all the details and all the tax
6 stuff. That's all handled by them.
7                   I'm not going to pretend to
8 know that stuff. I just know that this is 9 the bare minimum I can operate on.

10                  Q         And so sitting here today,
11 you are not prepared to work for less than 12 $1 million a year?

13                  MS. DRIVER: Objection, form;
14                   that's not -- that is 15                   mischaracterizing the document in 16                   front of him.

17                  MR. PATERSON: Vickie, we
18                   don't need speaking objections.

19                  A         I can't answer your question,
20 it is all speculative.

21                  Q         So you think it's speculative
22 work for more than -- less than $1 million?

23                  A         I mean, if inflation, if we 24 have deflation and money is worth twice as
25 much I might work for less.

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES

2                   In an inflationary economy,
3 no.

4                   MS. DRIVER: So the record is
5 clear, there is a settlement offer
6 on the table that is better than 7 this plan.

8                   We are testifying about this
9 plan. So asking whether he would do
10 something else in a settlement
11 agreement, I'm not going to let him
12 testify about.

13                  A           That's why I can't answer the 14 questions about -- I know there is another
15 plan that has more money offered.

16                  MR. PATERSON: Vicki, you're 17 not the one testifying today, so
18 theoretically you can not do the 19 interjections.

20                  A           That's why I can't speak
21 properly here. I can't keep heads or tails
22 these two plans.

23                  I read them both. She made
24 me read them again yesterday. I know there
25 are two plans.

Page 80

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES

2                   She made me -- I'm quoting
3                   the $70 million thing to you, and you're
4                   quoting a $55 million deal. And it's all
5                   just a bunch of games.

6                   A           So I'm not an accountant, I'm 7                   not going to pretend to answer your
8                   questions.

9                   If you've got real questions
10                  I can answer, I'll do them.

11                  Do I intend to try to make
12                  this deal and move on if you guys let me?
13                  Damn right I do.

14                  Am I 100 percent sure it's 15                  going to work? No. That's why this is the 16                  outside plan, the maximum I can do.

17                  A           What I do know is the markets
18                  and all the people coming into broadcasting
19                  and AI and everything I know, this is like
20                  on the outside.

21                  And if I can't pay it all,
22                  then you guys are right back where we were.

23                  So I want to try to make a
24                  deal and just move on from this. But -- I
25                  can speak to my beliefs, but I can't speak

Page 81

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES
2       to nebulous taxes and, you know, all this.

3                   I cannot speak with
4 competency to any of this.

5                   Q         Mr. Jones, do you consider it
6 a form of enslavement to make less than
7 $500,000 a year after taxes?

8                   MS. DRIVER: Objection to
9                   form. I'm going to instruct you not
10                  to answer.

11                  Q         Are you taking your counsel's
12 instruction?

13                  A         Yes.

14                  Q         So, looking back at the 15 document, and I'll just make clear we will
16 reserve our rights on everything where there
17 have been instructions not to answer and 18 reserve the right to pursue that further.

19                  Looking at the document, if 20 you look at the FSS distributions line, do
21 you see that line?

22                  A         Which one is that?

23                  Q         It's got a border around it
24 on the document, on the forecast.

25                  A         Yes.

1                    ALEXANDER E. JONES

2                    Q         And you see that shows
3 distributions from FSS to creditors, right?

4                    A         Yup.

5                    Q         And if you take a look,
6 you'll see those drop dramatically from 2028
7 to 2029.

8                    Do you see that?

9                    A         Yes.

10                  Q         Do you know why that is?

11                  A         I don't.

12                  Q         Are you expecting FSS'
13 business to fall off a cliff in 2029?

14                  A         I can't speak to why that was 15 done.

16                  Q         Do you know that you're 17 proposing to keep half of FSS' income
18 starting in 2029 in addition to what is 19 shown in the 50 percent to creditors line?

20                  A         Where is that? Show it to 21 me.

22                  Q         Are you aware that the 23 difference between these figures, the reason
24 why they drop so much from 2028 to 2029 is
25 that you're keeping more of FSS' income

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES

2 starting in 2029?

3                   MS. DRIVER: I'm going to
4 object. He just answered the
5 question he didn't know why. You
6 are now telling him why.

7                   So if you want to testify,
8 that's fine. If you would like to
9 ask him a question, that's fine.

10                  Right now you have testified
11 to something that he said he didn't
12 know, so, he can't answer that
13 question.

14                  Q         Okay, so let's be a bit more
15 specific.

16                  So you don't know, Mr. Jones,
17 that in addition to what is shown in the 50
18 percent to creditors line, you are going to 19 be getting millions of dollars a year from 20 FSS beginning around 2029?

21                  A         I don't -- I'm not aware of
22 that.

23                  Q         So let's just stick with the 24 roughly $1 million to start with.

25                  We spoke before about how you

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES

2    were keeping roughly $1 million to $1.4
3    million a year.

4                   What do you intend to use
5    those amounts for?

6                   MS. DRIVER: Objection, form.

7                   A         I have no idea what you're
8    talking about.

9                   Q         You know you are going to get
10   between $1 million and $1.4 million a year
11   under your plan, at least, right?

12                  A         Is that what it says?

13                  MS. DRIVER: He's referring 14   to this line.

15                  A         Yes.

16                  Q         Do you know that, Mr. Jones?

17                  A         Yeah, that's just a
18   projection, yeah.

19                  Q         And what do you plan to use
20   that money for?

21                  A         I don't know.

22                  Q         Have you spent any time
23   determining what necessary expenses you are 24   going to have in the future?

25                  A         I let financial planners do

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES

2       all that.

3                   Q       And so do you personally have
4       any understanding of what your necessary
5       expenses are?

6                   A       I mean currently, I have my
7       ex-wife suing me and a bunch of other stuff
8       going on, and I'm sure it will continue.

9                   I have a lot of expenses, and 10      I don't have all those numbers down in front
11      of me.

12                  Q       Are you aware of any document
13      where those numbers are recorded?

14                  A       No, I don't have it in front
15      of me; but I don't think it's a secret that 16      my ex-wife has been suing me for ten years.

17                  Q       Whether or not you have it in 18      front of you, are you aware of any
19      document --

20                  A       So I can't give you the 21      specific numbers, because I don't have it.

22                  Q       And who would have those 23      numbers?

24                  A       I'm sure it's in my
25      accounting and my taxes. I can find it.

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES

2                   Q         And are you aware of anyone
3                   going through all of your expenses
4                   methodically and working out which ones are
5                   necessary?

6                   A         Bob Slizer on just the 7                   general, and then for family law, David
8                   Minton.

9                   Q         That's not something you have 10                  done yourself personally?

11                  A         No, I haven't done my taxes
12                  in 30 years.

13                  Q         How much money do you think
14                  you need a month to satisfy your reasonable
15                  living expenses?

16                  A         I don't know.

17                  Q         Do you have any idea?

18                  A         No.

19                  Q         Do you need more than $50,000
20                  a month for your living expenses?

21                  A         I don't know.

22                  Q         Do you think it's possible
23                  you could live on less than $50,000 a month
24                  in expenses?

25                  MS. DRIVER: I object, he

1                    ALEXANDER E. JONES
2                    said he did not know. This is just
3                    the same question over and over
4                    again, harassing the witness.

5                    He's answered the question,
6                    please move on.

7                    MR. PATERSON: There is no
8                    harassing the witness, Vickie, and 9                    there is no need for speeches, but 10                  we will move on.

11                  Q            So let's talk about some of 12                  your expenses in a little more detail.

13                  And specifically I want to 14                  talk about your spending during the 15                  bankruptcy case.

16                  Have you made any changes to
17                  your historic spending since being in
18                  bankruptcy?

19                  A            I don't have --

20                  MS. DRIVER: I'm just going
21                  to make an objection. You can use
22                  your time in this deposition to ask
23                  these questions.

24                  But if you have taken the 25                  time to review his deposition

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES
2                   earlier in this case for the 2004
3                   exam, as well as Mr. Slicer's
4                   deposition, you would note that
5                   these questions have been covered in 6                   very excruciating detail.

7                   If you want to use your time
8                   for this, I'm happy to, but I won't
9                   be adding this to anything that we 10                  are doing today.

11                  MR. PATERSON: Vickie, we
12                  understand. We have read the prior
13                  depositions, we do want to talk
14                  about this, including things that 15                  have happened after the prior
16                  depositions.

17                  And we will use our time how 18                  we want, and so, to restate my
19                  question --

20                  Q            Have you made any changes to
21                  your historic spending since being in
22                  bankruptcy?

23                  MS. DRIVER: Given his
24                  statement before, I would ask that 25                  you make sure that you make that

1                    ALEXANDER E. JONES

2                    statement from the date of your 2004
3 forward.

4                    MR. PATERSON: In the last
5 few months have you made any changes
6 to your typical spending?

7                    A            I can't speak to the details,
8 because I'm not doing my accounting, but I
9 know we have cut a lot of expenses since
10 this process began, but I don't have the 11 details in front of me.

12                  Q            Do you have an understanding
13 of what expenses you've cut?

14                  A            Childcare, house repairs, a
15 whole list of things.

16                  Q            Okay, so let's talk about a
17 couple of those.

18                  I'm going to show you a
19 document, it will be Exhibit 5. It's going 20 to be tab 33 in your binder.

21                  (The above described document was
22 marked Exhibit 5 for identification as of
23 this date.)

24                  A            Got it.

25                  Q            And we will put it up on the

Page 90

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES

2 screen.

3                   Do you recognize this
4 document?

5                   A         I remember seeing a monthly
6 operating report, but I don't really
7 remember it. I remember seeing that name.

8                   Q         And do you review the monthly
9 operating reports before they are filed?

10                  A         They put them in front of me.

11                  Q         And any reason to believe
12 this is not your monthly operating report
13 for January?

14                  A         I'm sure it's real. I don't 15 know that -- they try to make me read all
16 this.

17                  Q         And so if you look at page 16
18 of the document, and the numbers on the 19 headers change partway through, so it says
20 page 4 of 7 on the header.

21                  It's near the end. You can
22 see it up on the screen.

23                  If you look at the second to 24 bottom line, you see it says, "Total meals
25 and entertainment, $2,195." Do you see

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES

2       that?

3                   A           Where is that?

4                   MS. DRIVER: Right down here.

5                   A           Yes.

6                   Q           So you spent $2,195 on meals
7       and entertainment while in bankruptcy in 8       January?

9                   A           Yeah, I mean, I don't really
10       keep track of this, but a lot of those are 11       business meetings.

12                  I don't even count it as 13       that, but yeah, probably more than that.

14                  Q           You think business meetings
15       go in your personal reports?

16                  A           I'm not nickel and diming
17       stuff but, I would imagine that sounds like
18       a right number.

19                  Q           Now let's look at the one for 20       February, it's going to be tab 34 in your 21       binder.

22                  We are going to mark it as
23       Exhibit 6.

24                  (The above described document was
25       marked Exhibit 6 for identification as of

Page 92

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES

2                   this date.)

3                   A           Okay.

4                   Q           We will bring it up on the
5 screen as well in a minute.

6                   Do you recognize this to be
7 your monthly operating report for February?

8                   A           That's different, that has a
9 yellow thingie on it. Is that the same
10 thing?

11                  MS. DRIVER: There are no
12 exhibit stickers on these.

13                  A           I see it.

14                  Q           And do you recognize this to 15 be your monthly operating report for 16 February?

17                  A           Looks like it. I'm not 18 disputing it.

19                  A           And if we go again near the 20 end of the document, page 4 of 6, do you see
21 the line for meals and entertainment?

22                  It's about ten lines up from 23 the bottom,

24                  A           Um-hum.

25                  Q           And you see it says $3,441 in

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES

2 bold?

3                   MS. DRIVER: Hold on.

4                   I'm having a hard time

5                   getting to that number.

6                   Q         Do you see total meals and
7 entertainment, $3,441?

8                   A         Yeah, I see it.

9                   Q         And, so in February you spent 10 $3,441 on meals and entertainment, is that
11 right?

12                  A         That's about right.

13                  Q         And that's, again, separate
14 from groceries, right?

15                  If you look out there is a
16 separate line item for groceries a few lines
17 up. Do you see that?

18                  A         Yeah, I'm just confused, so.

19                  MS. DRIVER: That's all
20 right.

21                  A         How am I supposed to make you
22 guys all this money if I don't go around and 23 do stuff?

24                  I don't know what you're 25 talking about.

Page 94

1                    ALEXANDER E. JONES

2                    Q         You think your meals and
3     entertainment of $3,441 a month are
4     necessary to make creditors a lot of money?

5                    A         Absolutely, because I mean, I
6     guess I need to get better with my
7     accounting, but a lot of this stuff is
8     business meetings and things.

9                    I just don't sit there and
10    think about it and use some company card,
11    because I don't have a company card, I have 12    to pay for everything myself.

13                  Like I paid for airline
14    tickets for business where I went and did
15    major interviews that made this company a
16    lot of money.

17                  A         Just because, that's the 18    problem with the bankruptcy. You asked me
19    earlier, what's your problem with it, and 20    the problem is it's been basically no
21    funding for me to do what I do.

22                  So I've been paying for a lot
23    of it myself.

24                  Q         Do you see --

25                  Q         If you go to page 5 of 6,

Page 95

1                    ALEXANDER E. JONES
2 second line down there is an item for
3 business expenses. Do you see that?

4                    A         Yes.

5                    Q         $2,329, is that right?

6                    A         Yes.

7                    Q         So it's your understanding
8 that business meals are not included in 9 business expenses, but instead meals and
10 entertainment?

11                  A         No, I'm saying I can do a
12 better job of making sure, but I don't have 13 a company card, so I'm not in the habit of 14 sitting there and thinking about oh, I'm 15 going to a business meeting.

16                  A         Well, a lot of that is what
17 that is, or buy the crew food, which I do
18 all the time, because we did it before.

19                  And I bought the whole crew
20 like luncheons multiple times on my credit
21 card.

22                  Then I don't really even
23 think about that, because it's just what I
24 do, but I mean, you know, that's that.

25                  So, I mean, this has been a

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES
2 pretty big company, pretty successful, so I
3 just continue to do business, you know.

4                   Q         Can you think of any reason
5 why Mr. Slizer wouldn't have included that
6 business expense in the business expense
7 category?

8                   A         Probably because I didn't
9 keep the receipt or even think about it.

10                  A         I'm just realizing a lot of 11 that is me handing the credit card to the 12 crew and saying buy the whole office pizza.
13 It's not a lot of money.

14                  Sometimes we do all night
15 shows. I've probably done two of those a
16 month. That's probably $500 bucks a night
17 buying everybody food.

18                  And then the CRO doesn't do
19 that for us, so yeah, a lot of that is me
20 running this operation.

21                  I mean, I will do stuff, too,
22 like where -- there is a lot of examples
23 where they will sit there and say, I'll say
24 I just need something right now for this
25 live event or something, and they will say

1                    ALEXANDER E. JONES

2        no, we are not going to pay for it, and I
3        just pay for it.

4                    Q            Do you have an understanding
5        of why the CRO doesn't incur those types of 6        expenses?

7                    A            I mean, I think he's an 8        accountant. I think he's overall trying to 9        do a good job, but it's almost like what,
10      you need to send a reporter somewhere? We 11      don't do that either.

12                  We are not a reporter group,
13      we are not a media group. It's almost like
14      turn the lights and camera off, you are not 15      trying to put something out for the public.

16                  So there are some cases now
17      where I sit there and I say hey, we need
18      this, and it's like no, we are not going to 19      pay for that, so I do it.

20                  Q            Other than what you have 21      mentioned, what other examples are there of
22      that?

23                  A            I would have to -- I will so
24      I don't really pay attention to it when it
25      happens.

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES

2                   When was the last time I'm
3                   not really fighting with the CRO. I just 4                   ignore it, I ignore it and move on.

5                   But there are a lot of
6                   examples to remember, because I don't really
7                   get upset about it, I just move on.

8                   What was the last one? It
9                   was -- I know I complained about it. Bob,
10                  what was the last timing thing I got 11                  irritated about?

12                  The studio, I had a huge new
13                  York guest on, the studio was $580 an hour,
14                  and people ask for that in TV and radio.

15                  And the guy wanted, a Rabbi
16                  Chumley, huge, like 20 million viewers,
17                  hugely successful.

18                  And I said I want 580 to 19                  pay -- he wants to go to a studio, so it
20                  looks good for an hour, and they said, "We 21                  don't pay for your buddy's studios.

22                  "Well, it's not our buddy's
23                  studios, it's our guest." So I took my 24                  credit card and went boom, you'll see it on 25                  there, like three weeks ago, and paid for

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES

2       it.

3                   A           I mean, that's just what -- I
4       mean, if they say they are not going to pay
5       for the electricity, I would probably put it
6       on my card too.

7                   That's probably next, it's
8       where we are at, so, it's just ongoing, you
9       know.

10                  Q           And so taking, a look back at 11      Exhibit 6, which is the February monthly
12      operating report, if you go to page 9 on the 13      pages on the bottom of the document, do you
14      see in bold underline, "I declare under 15      penalty of perjury that the foregoing
16      monthly operating report and its supporting 17      documentation are true and correct, and that
18      I have been authorized to sign this report
19      on behalf of the estate."

20                  Do you see that?

21                  A           Yes.

22                  Q           And you see underneath is 23      your signature?

24                  A           Yes.

25                  Q           And you signed this document,

Page 100

1                    ALEXANDER E. JONES

2                    correct?

3                    A                Looks like a Verisign, but to 4                    the best of my knowledge it's accurate.

5                    Q                And what steps did you take
6                    to ensure that expenses were properly
7                    categorized before authorizing its filing?

8                    A                No, I mean, I get your point,
9                    I should have brought those things to Bob's
10                  attention.

11                  I did bring the studio time
12                  to him, but I didn't think about when I
13                  bought people pizza or Chinese food.

14                  So yeah, I guess it's not 15                  perfect, but it's not on purpose. I should 16                  have brought those things to his attention.
17                  I just am not running around nickel and 18                  diming.

19                  Q                Looking back at the P&L we
20                  were looking at earlier, if you look at page
21                  4 of 6 on that document, do you see it lists
22                  groceries and the amount is $2,697 a month.

23                  Do you see that?

24                  A                Um-hum.

25                  Q                Is that groceries for the FSS

Page 101

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES

2 office as well?

3                   A         No, I think listed groceries,
4 I don't really buy that much groceries for
5 here.

6                   I mean, I buy like my own
7 Topo Chico and yogurt and food on my card.

8                   I bring a lot of that from 9 home, this is from my house, but I think
10 that's a separate deal.

11                  Q         So the groceries are for you
12 personally?

13                  A         Yes, and my family.

14                  Q         And can you think of why
15 that's almost 2,700 a month?

16                  A         There is a lot of inflation
17 and I've got a lot of people living with me,
18 so.

19                  Q         How many people live with 20 you? Let's not say the names of any minor
21 children, please.

22                  I'm not asking for names,
23 just number.

24                  A         Four full-time.

25                  Q         And some people not

1                    ALEXANDER E. JONES

2 full-time?

3                    A         Yeah, I've got some older
4 kids who stay there sometimes. The family
5 comes through.

6                    My wife's dad was living with
7 us for a few months, but he's been put in a
8 retirement home as of last month.

9                    So he was with us the last
10 six months, he had a heart attack.

11                  Q         I'm sorry to hear that.

12                  A         No big deal. He had a heart
13 attack and he moved down here, he's been
14 with us for six months. Now he's moved out.

15                  Q         And the row above is child
16 care, do you see that? And that's $10,618 a
17 month?

18                  A         Yes.

19                  Q         I take it that's not child
20 care for other FSS employees?

21                  A         No, that's from when I have 22 to go places out of town and do my job, so
23 yeah, it's overnights and all that stuff.

24                  Q         And you think it's reasonable
25 to be spending almost $11,000 a month on

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES

2       child care in bankruptcy?

3                   A       Yeah, when you are grossing
4       $50, $60 million a year, you guys want a
5       piece of it, that's what it takes me to do
6       the job.

7                   It's like putting gasoline in
8       the car.

9                   Q       How many hours a day do you
10      typically work?

11                  A       Is that a five day week
12      average or a seven day week average?

13                  Q       Let's do it per week. How 14      many hours per week?

15                  A       About 70 hours.

16                  Q       So your testimony is you work
17      about 70 hours a week?

18                  A       Yes.

19                  Q       How many hours in the FSS
20      office?

21                  A       About 50.

22                  Q       About 50 hours a week in the 23      FSS office, and is that all Monday to Friday
24      or the weekends as well?

25                  A       No, I work seven days a week.

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES

2                   Q               And so your testimony is
3                   you're in the office I guess more than seven
4                   hours a day on average?

5                   MS. DRIVER: Objection, form.

6                   A               I would have to go back to 7                   the most recent thing. I was here about six
8                   hours Sunday, I was here eight hours
9                   Saturday, I was here approximately eight,
10                  nine hours every other day. So do the math.

11                  I don't know, I say 70 hours,
12                  that's about -- I've been asked this
13                  question before, it's about 70 hours,
14                  because I do about 20 hours of prep at the 15                  house, at least.

16                  Q               And is that typical of the 17                  last few months?

18                  A               Yeah. We take my vacation
19                  out, it will probably be lower for the 20                  aggregate, yes.

21                  So I'm higher when I'm not on 22                  vacation. When I'm working about 70 hours.

23                  Q               So we were talking about
24                  meals before. What's the most expensive
25                  meal you remember paying for since filing

Page 105

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES

2       for bankruptcy?

3                   MR. MOSHENBERG: I'm going to
4                   object. To the extent you can.

5                   A           I can't answer that question.

6                   Q           What's your biggest 7       entertainment expense since filing for
8       bankruptcy?

9                   MR. MOSHENBERG: Objection to 10                  form. You can answer, if you can.

11                  A           You know, I'm not big on --
12       I'm not big on concerts and stuff, I'm not
13       really -- there is -- I don't know.

14                  You've got all my documents,
15       you figure it out. I don't have it.

16                  Q           I'm asking you, Mr. Jones.

17                  A           I don't know.

18                  Q           Do you have any understanding
19       of what you spend money on entertainment on?

20                  MS. DRIVER: I would like for 21       the record to reflect that since
22       Mr. Jones did not have a very good
23       personal understanding of this, we
24       have given Tonayo, who is the UCC's
25       financial advisor that we pay on a

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES
2                   monthly basis, complete access to
3                   his Quickbooks.

4                   And so, for the record, this
5                   information is absolutely within you
6                   guys' purview.

7                   So his not knowing about it
8                   we have solved for by overhearing
9                   the information.

10                  So I just want that to be on 11                  the record.

12                  MR. PATERSON: Vickie, if you
13                  want to testify about this we are 14                  happy to do it on another day, and 15                  right now, it's Mr. Jones, and I was 16                  asking if he had any
17                  understanding --

18                  MS. DRIVER: I'm not a fact
19                  witness here, but I think it's 20                  important for the record to reflect
21                  the facts.

22                  A           I don't know, so that makes
23                  it easy.

24                  MR. PATERSON: Maybe if you
25                  are not a fact witness, we can let

1                    ALEXANDER E. JONES

2                    the fact witness answer the
3                    questions.

4                    And so, Mr. -- I think you
5                    just did, so we can move on.

6                    A            Let's take a look at again
7                    the monthly operating report, it's Exhibit
8                    6.

9                    If you look on page 4, I
10                  think it is, you see items for housekeeping.
11                  Do you see that?

12                  A            Um-hum.

13                  Q            So that's $3,900 a month?

14                  A            Yes, would you guys rather me
15                  not do the show, or would you rather me
16                  clean the house, which one is it?

17                  Q            Does cleaning the house cost
18                  $3,900 a month?

19                  A            Yup, sure does.

20                  Q            How often do your cleaners
21                  come?

22                  A            Three times a week.

23                  Q            Do you think that's
24                  necessary?

25                  A            Yeah, I don't like washing

Page 108

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES
2 dishes and washing laundry. It's actually
3 very relaxing, but if you want me doing
4 that, there will be no money.

5                   Q         And so your testimony is that
6 in order to do your job with FSS you need to 7 spend $3,900 a month on housekeeping?

8                   A         Yeah.

9                   MS. DRIVER: Objection to
10                  form.

11                  A         Yes.

12                  Or wait, my wife should get
13 her ass in there and do it, right?

14                  Q         Do you think the average
15 American spends nearly that much on 16 housekeeping, Mr. Jones?

17                  A         No, the average American
18 isn't trying to pay you guys $70 million.

19                  Q         Do you think you could get by 20 without spending this much on housekeeping?

21                  A         Sure, I could go home and 22 probably downsize and stop working and pay
23 you guys nothing, and I can clean the house
24 all day.

25                  Actually sounds fun, I

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES

2 actually like cleaning.

3                   I like mopping, I like
4 washing clothes, I like cooking food more
5 than I like doing this.

6                   But if I am doing that, I
7 can't be on air, because you see, I have a
8 high earning job.

9                   So baseball players and top
10 TV hosts and people, they are not cleaning
11 their houses, not because they don't like
12 to, but because they have time better spent.

13                 Q           If the housekeeper only came
14 once a week, why wouldn't you be able to go
15 to work?

16                 A           The housekeeper is not just 17 cleaning the house, they are getting
18 everything ready and prepared so that we can 19 deal with the job and not with that, and 20 that's pretty standard.

21                   In fact, earners at my level
22 usually have people seven days a week. We 23 don't have a live in-house keeper. We have 24 3 days a week.

25                 Q           So you think you're doing it

Page 110

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES
2   tough because you don't have a 7 day a week
3   housekeeper?

4                   MS. DRIVER: Objection. Do
5   not answer that question. It's
6   harassment.

7                   MR. PATERSON: It's not
8   harassment at all, and we will
9   reserve our rights.

10                  MS. DRIVER: I think -- was a
11   judgment.

12                  THE WITNESS: But I do go to 13   school both ways uphill in the snow.

14                  Q         You mentioned vacation
15   before. Have you been on vacation since
16   filing for bankruptcy?

17                  A         Yes, I just went to Hawaii
18   for 12 days.

19                  Q         Sounds nice.

20                  A         It was really nice. It was 21   very relaxing.

22                  Q         Where in Hawaii?

23                  A         Went to Kauai.

24                  MS. DRIVER: I'm going to
25   object to any further questions

Page 111

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES

2                   about the exact location of where he
3                   was.

4                   MR. PATERSON: On what basis?

5                   MS. DRIVER: Privacy.

6                   MR. PATERSON: He's not there
7                   anymore. He's in his office.

8                   MS. DRIVER: When one of your
9                   associates asked where he was, TMZ
10                  reporters showed up there days
11                  later, and I don't want to draw a
12                  parallel, but I also don't want to 13                  have the issue again.

14                  THE WITNESS: Is that where 15                  they got it?

16                  MR. PATERSON: I just want to 17                  say there is absolutely no evidence
18                  of that.

19                  He's clearly not in Hawaii
20                  anymore, I don't understand.

21                  THE WITNESS: Nobody stalks
22                  me.

23                  MS. DRIVER: I'm not having
24                  it.

25                  MR. PATERSON: Vickie, I know

Page 112

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES

2                 why you wouldn't want the record on
3                 Hawaii to be developed, but I think
4                 we are entitled to your --

5                 MS. DRIVER: He is answering
6                 the questions. There is no reason
7                 why you need to know exactly where
8                 he was other than to send reporters
9                 there.

10               Q         Were you at a hotel in 11               Hawaii, Mr. Jones?

12               A         I stayed several places. I
13               stayed at a condo, stayed at different
14               hotels.

15               Q         And I assure you I have no
16               intention of sending reporters to where you
17               were staying on Hawaii.

18               A         Everything else I do at 19               depositions is on HBO and everywhere else.

20               Your statement implying we
21               are like exaggerating that is preposterous.

22               We all know, to me, I don't
23               even care. So just, the point I have travel
24               days, about 13, 14 days to Hawaii, and I
25               went there with my wife and my daughter, so,

Page 113

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES

2 and that's it, and we went snorkeling.

3 Q               Who paid for the trip?

4 A               Not me.

5 Q               Who?

6 A               Not me.

7 Q               Mr. Jones, I understand it's
8 not you. Who paid for the trip?

9                   MS. DRIVER: I'm going to
10 object. There is no reason to 11 understand who -- there is no reason
12 for him to disclose who paid for the 13 trip.

14                  MR. PATERSON: If there is a
15 source of financing --

16                  MS. DRIVER: If you want to,
17 you can talk about it off the 18 record, we can talk about it under
19 the protective order for 20 professional eyes only, but I will
21 not let him answer that question on
22 the record.

23                  MR. PATERSON: Okay, look,
24 you can give whatever instructions
25 you want, Vickie, but I think that's

Page 114

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES
2                   totally unjustified and we are going
3                   to be following up on that.

4                   MS. DRIVER: Perfect.

5                   Q         How much did the trip cost?

6                   A         I don't know, I didn't pay
7                   for it.

8                   Q         How did you get there? You
9                   flew, right?

10                  A         Yes.

11                  Q         Did you fly commercial?

12                  A         Yes.

13                  Q         Was it business class?

14                  MR. MOSHENBERG: I'm going to
15                  object. This is not relevant, it
16                  does not -- it did not come -- if 17                  there are any expenses from any of 18                  this, it will come into his MOR.

19                  He's already testified that 20                  he didn't pay for it. I don't 21                  understand where we are going with 22                  this.

23                  This is a deposition that was 24                  noticed for the purpose of talking
25                  about the contested matter of his

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES

2                   plan, and any settlement that would
3                   be with the Texas Plaintiffs, and
4                   this is far outside of those realms.

5                   A         If they think in the 6                   newspaper, that's nothing, the more they do
7                   attacks, the better.

8                   MR. PATERSON: Vickie, I
9                   couldn't agree more. I think this
10                  is clearly relevant as to plan
11                  confirmation issues as may become 12                  apparent.

13                  We are going to reserve our 14                  rights on this, but those 15                  instructions are purely improper.

16                  Q         How many other vacations have
17                  you been on since filing for bankruptcy?

18                  A         I've been on work trips. I
19                  wouldn't state it was vacations.

20                  But I think there were some
21                  vacations, I guess a year and a half ago, I
22                  can't remember.

23                  I think I've been on, I've 24                  been on a couple of vacations, but most --
25                  I've been on quite a few trips for business.

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES

2   And I really can't keep track of it all.

3   But --

4                   Q         And, you said?

5                   A         I went to Big Bend and I went
6   to east Texas and camped out. Those are
7   vacations. Where else did I go? Where did
8   I go?

9                   MS. DRIVER: I think you went
10                  to --

11                  A         A year and a half, I think a
12   year and a half ago I went to Cancun, she 13   remembers. So that's the vacations I
14   remember.

15                  Q         How long did you go to Cancun
16   for?

17                  A         About a week or something.
18   She remembers it, I don't even remember it.
19   I thought it was like two years ago, but I
20   guess she says last year and a half, Cancun.

21                  MS. DRIVER: That's to my 22   recollection.

23                  A         That's to her recollection.

24                  Q         And who paid for the Cancun
25   trip?

Page 117

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES

2                   MS. DRIVER: If you recall?

3                   A         I don't remember.

4                   Q         Was it your dad?

5                   A         I don't remember. You guys
6 have the files.

7                   Q         We don't have all of your
8 dad's files.

9                   Has he paid for any of your 10 vacations?

11                  A         Not that I remember. My dad
12 has helped me on some bills. I don't
13 remember the details.

14                  Q         Would you support a Plan of 15 Reorganization where you were unable to have
16 vacations like your Hawaii vacation?

17                  MS. DRIVER: I'll object to 18 the form of that.

19                  If you can answer it.

20                  A         I mean, obviously I'm going
21 to go on vacation and I'm going to live my 22 life, and if you want guys want to try to 23 block something like that, that's your 24 ballgame.

25                  I'm not miserable, if that's

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES

2       your question, and I'm not going to be
3       miserable. And so it is what it is.

4                   If you want me to go work and
5       make you money, but you don't want me to do
6       anything myself. It's just bizarre, it's 7       unAmerican.

8                   And so -- but I really don't
9       even care. I'm not even worried about all 10      of this.

11                  So, I'm working hard, been
12      totally transparent, and I'm being asked
13      about a vacation. It's just --

14                  Q       I will show you another
15      document. We are going to be -- first of 16      all, you said you're being totally 17      transparent.

18                  Just to confirm, you're not
19      saying who paid for your Hawaii vacation,
20      right?

21                  A       I didn't really pay
22      attention.

23                  I know my wife booked it. I
24      think she paid for most of it.

25                  Q       Who is she?

1                    ALEXANDER E. JONES

2                    A         My wife, you know who she is.

3                    Q         So, we are going to go to
4 Exhibit 7.

5                    A         You want my life for an HBO
6 movie. I can say her name.

7                    Q         It's tab 3 in your binder.

8                    A         TMZ coverage, anyways.

9                    MS. DRIVER: I want to make
10                  sure we spend time talking about TMZ
11                  coverage of his Hawaii trip after 12                  Judge Schultz disclosed in his 13                  deposition to your associate in 14                  response to his questions, where he
15                  was on vacation.

16                  Over my objection.

17                  MR. PATERSON: Vickie, we
18                  will spend more time if you keep 19                  giving irrelevant and unhelpful and 20                  inaccurate speeches.

21                  THE WITNESS: She doesn't
22                  even know where I was.

23                  (The above described document was
24                  marked Exhibit 7 for identification as of
25                  this date.)

Page 120

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES

2                   Q           Mr. Jones, can you see
3   Exhibit 7? We have put that on the screen
4   as well.

5                   A           Yes.

6                   Q           On the second page, top of 7   the second page there is a photo of you
8   sitting in a chair.

9                   Do you see that?

10                  A           Yes.

11                  MS. DRIVER: What is the 12   relevance to the plan of this?

13                  MR. PATERSON: Vickie, I'm 14   not going to have a debate about 15   relevance here.

16                  MS. DRIVER: I'm not going
17   to --

18                  MR. PATERSON: You can't
19   object.

20                  MS. DRIVER: Move on.

21                  Q           Is this an accurate
22   photograph showing you in Hawaii, Mr. Jones?

23                  MS. DRIVER: Instruction not
24   to answer.

25                  A           I'm going to follow the

Page 121

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES

2 instructions of my lawyer.

3                   MS. DRIVER: This is 4 harassment. Move on.

5                   MR. PATERSON: Vickie, just
6 to save some time --

7                   MS. DRIVER: You have an hour
8 and 40 minutes. If you want to use
9 it with me instructing him not to
10 answer about trash media reports,
11 then we can use it doing that, or I
12 can just stop the deposition.

13                  A Number one, we have got 14 longer than that. Number two, if you would 15 let me finish what I was going to say, are 16 you going to instruct him not to answer any
17 question about this article?

18                  MS. DRIVER: Yes.

19                  MR. PATERSON: So we will
20 reserve our rights on that as well,
21 and we will move on.

22                  MS. DRIVER: You take that to
23 Judge Lopez and ask him if you need
24 to ask him about this news article
25 from TMZ about the relevance of this

Page 122

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES

2                   plan.

3                   MR. PATERSON: Vickie, again,
4                   we can do without the speeches. I
5                   think this is -- I'll stop it there.

6                   MR. MOSHENBERG: I might
7                   advise you look back and ask you
8                   where -- there were other exhibits
9                   accidentally attached to -- in the 10                  very beginning of the FSS case,
11                  where the judge said he was not 12                  going to tolerate the family of 13                  Jones being drug through the mud in 14                  his court.

15                  MR. PATERSON: Vickie, again,
16                  we can do without the lengthy
17                  objections.

18                  They are just going to make
19                  this deposition longer.

20                  MS. DRIVER: I don't think
21                  you have a clear understanding of 22                  this case, and I do feel like you do
23                  need to know that.

24                  MR. PATERSON: I appreciate
25                  your comments. I'm going to move

Page 123

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES

2                   on.

3                   THE WITNESS: Can we take
4                   another break?

5                   MR. PATERSON: Sure. I'm
6                   happy to take a break.

7                   A         I'll be here as long as you
8                   want.

9                   THE VIDEOGRAPHER: Going off
10                  the record, the time is 4:40 p.m.

11                  (At this point in the proceedings
12                  there was a recess, after which the
13                  deposition continued as follows:)

14                  THE VIDEOGRAPHER: The time
15                  is 4:50 p.m. We are back on the 16                  record.

17                  Q         Mr. Jones, I would like to go
18                  back to the document that is Exhibit 3, it's
19                  tab 3 in your binder.

20                  That's your Disclosure
21                  Statement?

22                  A         She's pulling it up. Got it.

23                  Q         And if you go to page 93 of 24                  that document --

25                  A         93 of the document?

Page 124

1                    ALEXANDER E. JONES

2                    Q            Yes.

3                    MS. DRIVER: I think he's
4                    looking at the top numbers now.

5                    MR. PATERSON: It's based on
6                    the top numbers, yes.

7                    A            Got it.

8                    Q            And do you see a list of the 9                    claims that have been asserted against you
10                  there?

11                  A            Yes.

12                  Q            And the corresponding amounts
13                  are also there?

14                  A            Yes.

15                  Q            At the top do you see the 16                  Connecticut Plaintiffs listed in the first
17                  blue box?

18                  A            Yes.

19                  Q            And then underneath it lists
20                  the amount of damages each of them was 21                  awarded in Connecticut.

22                  Do you see that?

23                  A            Yes.

24                  Q            You have appealed those 25                  awards, haven't you?

Page 125

1                    ALEXANDER E. JONES

2                    A            Yes.

3                    Q            And you think they are
4 exorbitant, don't you?

5                    A            Well, I never even knew who
6 William Aldenberg was, never said his name,
7 my company never said his name.

8                    So that's quite a new
9 precedent you guys have set. I'll give it
10 to you.

11                  A            The FBI's chief counsel in 12 Connecticut goes and creates a lawsuit with 13 Koskov & Koskov, and then creates a lawsuit
14 where I never even knew who he was, and he 15 gets $130 million.

16                  Yeah, I think that's
17 exorbitant.

18                  Q            And will you continue to 19 challenge and appeal these claims for 20 non-settling Plaintiffs if your bankruptcy
21 plan is confirmed?

22                  A            I haven't really thought
23 about that. I just know the appeals are 24 going forward.

25                  Q            And looking down under Texas

Page 126

1                    ALEXANDER E. JONES

2 Plaintiffs, do you know who Veronica De La
3 Rosa was?

4                    A         Yes.

5                    MS. DRIVER: I believe --

6                    Q         Who was she?

7                    MS. DRIVER: Veronique?

8                    Q         Let me -- Veronique?

9                    MS. DRIVER: Veronique.

10                  Q         Who was she?

11                  A         She's one of the mothers of 12 one of the children that died.

13                  Q         Okay, so going back to your
14 Disclosure Statement -- well, this document
15 here, let's look, for example, at Kelly Soto
16 Parisi's claim.

17                  Do you see there it's listed
18 there for around $98 million?

19                  A         Yes.

20                  Q         Do you think that amount is
21 reasonable?

22                  MS. DRIVER: Objection, form.

23                  No foundation he even knows who she 24 is.

25                  A         I mean, I don't think $1.5

Page 127

1                    ALEXANDER E. JONES

2 billion -- I never even knew who these
3 people were, I never said their names.

4                    So, it's reasonable -- so I'm 5 trying to settle it, so the question is 6 academic.

7                    Q                So one of the amounts listed
8 here under the Connecticut Plaintiffs, would
9 you say that they were unreasonable amounts
10 that were awarded against you?

11                  MS. DRIVER: Objection, form.

12                  Go ahead.

13                  A                I mean, they asked for $2.7
14 trillion, the GDP of India. This is all
15 kind of La La Land right now. I don't even 16 know who these people are, I never said the 17 names, I said the name of one person.

18                  So, this is like Cuckoo for 19 Cocoa Puffs for me. I'm just trying to get 20 past this for the money I have.

21                  But yeah, obviously I never 22 had $93 million or $130 million for 23 Aldenberg.

24                  So I didn't know who is he
25 until he sued me. Never said his name,

1                    ALEXANDER E. JONES
2 never published who he is, never put his
3 face up, didn't know who he was.
4                    So I'm living in La La Land
5 here, so --

6                    Q         Do you think the amount of 7 those damages awards is La La Land as well?

8                    A         Yeah, I think it's La La
9 Land.

10                  Q         And is that true for all of 11 the Connecticut Plaintiffs?

12                  A         I said the name of Robbie
13 Parker, there is a big internet story, and I
14 said what I thought about that.

15                  I barely ever indicated I
16 said Robbie Parker's name, yes. So if,
17 questioning someone, the jury wants to say
18 that, you can say something about him.

19                  But the other people, I don't
20 know who they are, other than I also said
21 later, the name of, when he sued me, Posner,
22 but that's in Texas.

23                  So I guess I said the name of 24 two people, but I mean, I don't even know
25 who these other people are.

1                    ALEXANDER E. JONES

2                    So that's basically where I'm 3 at on that.

4                    Q                And Robert Parker has the
5 largest award against you of about $170
6 million, right?

7                    A                Show it to me. Yes.

8                    Q                Do you think that's La La
9 Land as well?

10                  A                Yeah, because I never made
11 half that, so, yeah.

12                  I mean, people act like I'm 13 General Motors or something, I'm not. Or 14 Elon Musk.

15                  Q                Do you know what percentage
16 of each of these claims would be paid under 17 your proposed bankruptcy plan?

18                  A                I could look it up. Can you
19 enlighten me?

20                  Q                Just sitting here today, do
21 you have any knowledge of what proportion of 22 these amounts creditors are going to get?

23                  A                No.

24                  Q                So, let's take a look at the 25 Texas Plaintiffs' claims. Are you aware of

Page 130

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES

2       the settlement you entered into with the
3       Texas Plaintiffs on their claim amounts?

4                   MS. DRIVER: Objection, form.

5                   MR. LEMMON: Objection to
6       form.

7                   A       Can you clarify that?

8                   Q       Yeah, let's make it more
9       tangible.

10                  We are going to show you what 11       we are going to mark as Exhibit 8, which is
12       tab 16 in your binder.

13                  (The above described document was
14       marked Exhibit 8 for identification as of
15       this date.)

16                  A       All right, I'm on it.

17                  Q       Great, and we will bring it
18       up on the screen.

19                  Q       Do you recognize this
20       document?

21                  A       Yes.

22                  Q       And it's a declaration you
23       submitted in support of a motion for 24       approval of a settlement relating to the 25       Texas Plaintiffs' claims, is that right?

Page 131

1                    ALEXANDER E. JONES

2                    A         Yes.

3                    Q         And do you see in paragraph 2
4        it says, "I am aware of the proposed
5        settlement set forth," and it references a
6        motion.

7                    Do you see that?

8                    A         Yes.

9                    Q         And 3, you say, "I am aware
10      of and familiar with Exhibit A to the 11      proposed order." Do you see that?

12                  A         Yes, I have seen this several 13      times.

14                  Q         And one of the things you say
15      in paragraph 4 is, "I believe the proposed 16      settlement is in the best interest of my 17      bankruptcy estate."

18                  Do you see that?

19                  A         Yes.

20                  Q         And at the bottom, "I declare
21      under penalty of perjury that the foregoing
22      is true and correct," and that's your 23      signature, right?

24                  A         Yes.

25                  MS. DRIVER: I just want to

Page 132

1                    ALEXANDER E. JONES

2                    let the client read all of 4. Just 3                    part of 4 was referenced.

4                    Q                Okay. So feel free to take a
5 minute to read the rest of that.

6                    A                Yes.

7                    Q                And having read that, would
8 you change any of your prior answers?

9                    A                I mean, I believe my counsel.
10 I don't fully understand all the legalese of 11 it, but I am trying to settle with the 12 Plaintiffs.

13                    I believe the proposed
14 settlement is in the best interests of my 15 bankruptcy estate to delay the additional 16 expense of continued litigation, to allow 17 for some of the largest claims in the 18 bankruptcy to be liquidated through plan
19 voting and distribution while I move towards 20 confirming a plan.

21                    Yeah, I remember we
22 approached Texas, I didn't have the money
23 for a trial, to try to make an agreement
24 with him in hopes that Connecticut would
25 make an agreement, too.

Page 133

2
3                    I remember that.
4
5                    And that's what I remember
6                    this was for, was to try to get them to push
7                    off the trial, so we could try to make an 8
9                    agreement.

10                  MR. PATERSON: Okay, so let's
11                  take a look at Exhibit A referenced 12                  in here, and it's tab 17 of your
13                  binder. It's going to be Exhibit 9,
14                  I think.

15                  A                Okay, I'm on it.

16                  Q                And we will just bring it up
17                  for everyone else.

18                  (The above described document was
19                  marked Exhibit 9 for identification as of
20                  this date.)

21                  Q                Are you familiar with this
22                  document?

23                  A                I've seen the document, yes,
24                  several times.

25                  Q                And this is the Exhibit A
26                  referenced in the declaration we were just 27                  discussing, right?

28                  A                Is that right?

Page 134

1                    ALEXANDER E. JONES

2                    Q            Do you have any reason to
3 believe it's not, Mr. Jones?

4                    A            Well, you were just showing
5 me a document, I understand -- yes, it says
6 Exhibit A.

7                    MS. DRIVER: I'll represent
8                    to Mr. Jones that that is the 9                    Exhibit A that we filed under seal.

10                  Q            So let's start with 11 Mr. Posner. What is the amount you have 12 agreed to settle Mr. Posner's claim for?

13                  A            $200 million.

14                  Q            You think agreeing to this 15 claim amount is in the best interests of 16 your estate?

17                  A            Yes.

18                  Q            And you thought this was a
19 reasonable amount to settle Mr. Posner's
20 claims for, correct?

21                  A            Yes, given that it becomes an
22 average of what's actually available, yes.

23                  Q            Isn't it true that no
24 Connecticut Plaintiff has a claim of more
25 than $170 million?

Page 135

1                    ALEXANDER E. JONES

2                    A         I don't know what that means.

3                    Q         Well, are you aware of any
4 Connecticut Plaintiff who has a claim of 5 more than $170 million?

6                    A         I don't know what a
7 communicable claim is.

8                    Q         We were just looking before,
9 we can go back to it, at your Disclosure
10 Statement. It's Exhibit 3, page 93.

11                  MS. DRIVER: I can represent 12 to him that would make it the 13 largest claim in this case.

14                  A         Okay, I understand that, so
15 it's the largest claim in the case. Go
16 ahead.

17                  Q         So why is it that you think a
18 $200 million claim from Mr. Posner is
19 reasonable?

20                  A         Well, Aldenberg, the chief
21 counsel of the FBI, who never had his name
22 mentioned, was never shown by me, gets $130
23 million.

24                  I would imagine someone who
25 lost a child would get $70 million extra.

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES

2       That sounds very fair.

3                   Q         Let's move on to Ms. dela
4       Rossi. What's the settled amount of her
5       claim?

6                   A         $180 million.

7                   Q         And you think that was a
8       reasonable amount to settle Ms. dela Rossi's
9       claim for?

10                  A         I would imagine that
11       Mr. Aldenberg, who never had his name said
12       by any one of my people, never shown on air,
13       and we never knew who he was, if he gets 14       $130 million, I would imagine a woman who 15       actually lost a child, who I never said her
16       name, and I did show her on TV and talk
17       about her with the CNN host Harry --
18       Anderson Cooper, at least she was shown on 19       my show.

20                  A         So I would imagine that,
21       yeah, I think that's very conservative.
22       Someone's name who's never said, they got
23       $130 million.

24                  Someone's name who's actually
25       been said, maybe $17 billion, but we are

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES

2 talking.

3                   So if the name has never been
4 said, $130 million if your name is said, I
5 would think in the trillions, to be serious
6 with you.

7                   But yes, I would think that
8 $180 million, compared to someone whose name
9 has not been said, if you were actually
10 covered, I think that's very reasonable.

11                  Q         You are aware Mr. Parker lost
12 a child, right?

13                  A         Yes.

14                  Q         And you said his claim was La
15 La Land?

16                  A         No, I said all the other
17 claims, where I didn't say their names or
18 know who they were, and I never said her
19 name, but I did show her on TV.

20                  So, I said Parker's name, I
21 talked about Posner, and then I did show
22 Della Rossi on TV with Anderson Cooper.

23                  I'm saying the idea that I
24 have $2.7 trillion, that's what they asked
25 for in Connecticut, it's in Bloomberg, they

Page 138

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES

2       asked for it, that's La La Land, because I
3       don't have that much money.

4                   But if you're going to look
5       at claims and say well, this FBI gets $130
6       million, well, someone who actually lost a
7       child, then I think $180 million or $200
8       million is reasonable when we are in that 9       world.

10                  A           I mean, you care about Della
11       Rossi and you care about Posner and them, we 12       care about Aldenberg, no one ever showed his 13       name but, he's a huge victim, TERPB, they 14       are as important as him or maybe a little
15       more.

16                  Q           But you said you think
17       Mr. Aldenberg's claim is unreasonable,
18       right?

19                  A           I didn't even know who he was 20       until he sued me. Never said his name, none
21       of our reporters did, never talked about 22       him.

23                   I'm saying if his claim of 24       130 is reasonable, then I think Dela Rossi
25       and Leonard Posner have a little bit more.

Page 139

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES

2                   And you're certainly not
3 questioning them. I mean, they are victims.

4                   Q               Do you think Nicole Hockley's
5 claim is reasonable?

6                   A               I don't know who she is. You
7 would have to refresh my memory, I never
8 said her name.

9                   Q               So let's go back to -- it's
10 still up on the screen, the Disclosure
11 Statement. You see Mr. Hockley's claim?

12                  MS. DRIVER: Give him a
13 chance, he asked who she was.

14                  Q               You see Mr. Hockley is there
15 for $108 million? We are on the Disclosure
16 Statement, which is Exhibit 3.

17                  MS. DRIVER: You can look up
18 there if you want.

19                  A               I see that.

20                  Q               Do you think that's 21 unreasonable?

22                  A               Well, did she lose a child?

23                  Q               Did she, do you know?

24                  A               People think I killed the 25 kids. I didn't, but I'm asking you, I don't

Page 140

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES

2 know who this woman is.

3                   I know I owe her all this
4 money. If she is in the same category, not
5 of Aldenberg, but of a child, and I am
6 responsible, I would like to know, so. I
7 don't even know who she is.

8                   First I heard her name was
9 from you right now, just, so --

10                  MS. DRIVER: If I'm not
11 mistaken, there is no objection by
12 Texas to any of the Connecticut
13 Plaintiffs' claims, so I don't see
14 where we are going here.

15                  MR. PATERSON: Understood,
16 Vickie.

17                  Q         Do you think -- do you
18 distinguish between the Connecticut and the 19 Texas Plaintiffs in your mind?

20                  MS. DRIVER: Objection, form.
21                  The distinction was made when they 22 chose their counsel and filed where
23 they did.

24                  MR. PATERSON: I'm not asking
25 about how they chose their counsel,

Page 141

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES

2                   Vickie, I'm certainly not asking you
3                   about it, I'm asking Mr. Jones if he 4                   distinguishes between the
5                   Connecticut and the Texas Plaintiffs
6                   in his mind.

7                   MR. LEMMON: Real quick, I'm 8                   going to object to the form of the
9                   question.

10                  MS. DRIVER: I will object to
11                  the form of the question.

12                  A               I don't know that I can
13                  answer that, I really don't think of that.

14                  The only thing is I know, I
15                  think I said Posner's name once, talked
16                  about Robbie Parker, showed Dela Rossi on 17                  TV, didn't say her name.

18                  Everybody else, I don't know
19                  who they are. So, that's it.

20                  Q               Do you think as between those 21                  groups, the Connecticut Plaintiffs and the 22                  Texas Plaintiffs, that one set of them
23                  should receive proportionately more under 24                  your bankruptcy plan?

25                  A               That's not up to me. I

Page 142

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES
2    didn't have the money for a new trial, and
3    we made an agreement with them to push the 4    trial off, and that was the substance of
5    that.

6                   Q         But it's your bankruptcy
7    plan, right, Mr. Jones?

8                   A         Well, like I said, these 9    large numbers are basically just going to be 10   averaged down to what I actually have.

11                  So, like I said, I've never 12   had 5 percent of the money being claimed
13   here.

14                  So forgive me if I don't
15   really take it at face value. I'm just here
16   like dealing with something that feels like
17   a hallucination.

18                  So -- I don't -- I mean, I
19   think the numbers of Robbie Parker versus de
20   la Rossi and Posner are very close. They 21   both lost children, so I don't want to 22   question the parents of victims.

23                  Whether it's Robbie Parker or 24   Dela Rossi or Posner, I don't think it's 25   right to be questioning victims here.

Page 143

1                    ALEXANDER E. JONES

2                    Q            Isn't that precisely what you
3                    did, Mr. Jones, questioning victims?

4                    A            I mean, the ones I know. I'm 5                    just saying I know these people. I at least
6                    knew who they were, so.

7                    But I mean, I'm not the one
8                    questioning who would get what money or
9                    whatever.

10                  I just simply tried to make
11                  agreements, tried to move forward with 12                  settlement in hopes of getting a full
13                  settlement.

14                  Q            You said, I believe you said
15                  Mr. Parker's claim was reasonable. If 16                  that's the case, why are you appealing it?

17                  MS. DRIVER: I'm going to
18                  object to the extent this is calling
19                  for any legal strategy or anything
20                  you have discussed with Norm or 21                  anyone else.

22                  If you can't answer the 23                  question without revealing the 24                  conversations with Norm or anyone
25                  else on your appeals, I'm going to

Page 144

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES

2                   instruct you not to answer.

3                   A           Yeah, and what I said is 4 being twisted here. I said at least I even
5 knew who he was, okay? And I am trying to 6 like just move on past this.

7                   I see it more reasonable than 8 people I don't even know who they are, like
9 Aldenberg, until he sued me, I don't know
10 who he is, and we never talk about him.

11                  So that's a new system where 12 you don't know who someone is, but you owe
13 him $130 million.

14                  I mean, there is no way for 15 me to respond to this, because it's all at a
16 level of its own reality.

17                  In fact, I'm not even denying
18 the reality is false, it's its own reality
19 its own universe; beautiful.

20                  Q           Do you think Mr. Parker's
21 claim is reasonable?

22                  MS. DRIVER: I'm going to
23 object. He's answered that question
24 multiple times.

25                  MR. PATERSON: He hasn't,

Page 145

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES

2                   it's yes or no. He does or he 3                   doesn't.

4                   MS. DRIVER: I'm going to
5                   object to the continued questioning
6                   of this exact same question.

7                   He's answered it multiple
8                   times, please move on.

9                   And I don't think anything in 10                  this contested matter in which this 11                  deposition is noticed that it's 12                  questioning the amounts of the 13                  claims of the Connecticut
14                  Plaintiffs.

15                  And if there is in your
16                  question, I would like to know.

17                  Q           Are you declining to answer
18                  that question, Mr. Jones?

19                  A           This is all for HBO. Yeah,
20                  I'm declining to answer it.

21                  Q           Do you recall the Texas
22                  Plaintiffs' claims amounts being negotiated?

23                  MS. DRIVER: I'm going to
24                  object to the extent you cannot
25                  answer that question without

Page 146

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES
2                   revealing attorney-client
3                   communications that you had with me.
4                   I'm going to instruct you not
5                   to answer.

6                   THE WITNESS: Vickie, I don't
7                   even know what you're talking about,
8                   so I have to say I don't know.

9                   Q           We were just looking at some
10          claim amounts of Texas Plaintiffs in Exhibit
11          A, right, do you recall that?

12          A           Yes.

13          Q           Were you involved in 14          negotiating those amounts?

15          A           Six, eight months ago Vickie
16          said, or longer, whatever it was.

17                   MS. DRIVER: Don't say what 18                   Vickie said. That is
19                   attorney-client privilege.

20                   MR. LEMMON: Sorry,
21                   Mr. Jones, I'm also going to object
22                   to the form of the question. Sorry
23                   to interrupt you.

24          A           I discussed not having a
25          trial, because I didn't have the money.

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES

2                   Plus the fiasco of it, to
3 getting them to push the trial off, that was
4 what I heard the discussions were.

5                   Q         You said you heard the
6 discussions were. My question was were you
7 personally involved in the negotiation of 8 the Texas Plaintiffs?

9                   A         No, no.

10                  Q         Do you know who was?

11                  A         No, I mean, I'm -- I'm not
12 supposed to talk about private stuff.

13                  MS. DRIVER: You can tell
14 them if you know.

15                  A         Yes, they were -- I was like,
16 I don't want to have this trial, I don't 17 have any money. They said we will try to 18 work with them to push it off.

19                  Those were the discussions.

20                  Q         The "they" you just were 21 referencing was your counsel?

22                  A         Yes.

23                  Q         You recently got an offer
24 from your neighbor to buy your 127 acre
25 ranch for $2.8 million, is that right?

Page 148

1                    ALEXANDER E. JONES

2                    A            Yes.

3                    Q            Under your plan, do you know
4 who would get the proceeds of that sale?

5                    A            I'm not an accountant, but
6 everything that goes into my DIP account,
7 it's basically we are doing Chapter 7, even
8 though we aren't.

9                    It's being put into the 10 account to pay the --

11                  MS. DRIVER: I'll object to
12 the form of the question.

13                  A            I don't know how to answer
14 that.

15                  MS. DRIVER: It's clear to 16 everyone where that money goes, and
17 it's not into his DIP account.

18                  Q            We just heard Mr. Jones say
19 it was and the client --

20                  MS. DRIVER: And he's not
21 legally aware of where that goes, so
22 let's just not try to confuse it?

23                  MR. PATERSON: No one is
24 trying to confuse anyone, Vickie.

25                  Q            Just to make clear, just to

Page 149

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES
2   be sure we have a very clear question, are
3   you aware of who would receive the proceeds
4   of that ranch sale under your Plan of 5   Reorganization?

6                   MS. DRIVER: Objection, form.
7   Assumes facts not in evidence.

8                   A         Yeah, I really shouldn't
9   answer these questions, because I don't know
10   the answers.

11                  I signed months ago and weeks
12   ago to sell the property, and I believe it
13   was going into the bankruptcy. However that 14   works, I don't know the details.

15                  Q         And look, if you don't know
16   the answer to a question, that's all you
17   need to tell me.

18                  A         Yeah, I was trying to be 19   helpful. It's my belief it was being done
20   to like go into the bankruptcy.

21                  Q         Have you entered into a
22   settlement with the Texas Plaintiffs to
23   support your bankruptcy plan?

24                  A         I have no connection -- I
25   have not talked to the Texas Plaintiffs.

Page 150

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES

2                 Q         And are you aware of anyone
3     entering into a settlement on your behalf
4     with the Texas Plaintiffs to support your
5     bankruptcy plan?

6                 A         No.

7                   MR. LEMMON: Objection, form,
8     by the way.

9                 Q         Are you aware of the current
10   status of any discussions with the Texas
11   Plaintiffs?

12                  MS. DRIVER: Objection. I'm 13     going to instruct the witness, to 14     the extent you cannot answer that 15     without revealing conversations with 16     your counsel, if you can, without 17     revealing discussions with your
18     counsel, please do answer.

19                  THE WITNESS: I already told
20     him that was the end of the trial.
21     That's the only thing I knew about.

22                  MS. DRIVER: Then that's all
23     you know about.

24                 Q         So, changing topics, am I
25     right in understanding you never had a

Page 151

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES
2       written employment agreement with FSS before
3       the bankruptcy?

4                   MS. DRIVER: Objection, form.

5                   A       We had one with the previous
6       CRO Mark Schwartz, but he never executed it,
7       he was removed by Judge Lopez, this I do
8       know about, and then they had put Pat McGill
9       in there, and then he never signed it.

10                  Q       What's your personal view of 11       Mr. McGill?

12                  A       I think he's an accountant.
13       He did some good things here.

14                  But I also think with this
15       being so political, he was basically
16       paralyzed, where we have, like we have to be 17       competitive just to stay on air, and we have 18       not been competitive for over a year and a
19       half now.

20                  And I'm not even blaming him.
21       People don't know how this stuff works. But 22       I mean, I think -- I mean, I really don't 23       know what to say about Pat, he's done some 24       good things, he's done some things I
25       disagree with.

Page 152

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES

2                   And I think with all the
3 lawyers and everybody involved, everybody
4 has been frustrated with each other.

5                   So, I just think because
6 there are so many cooks in the kitchen,
7 there has been a lot of frustration and a
8 lot of issues and a lot of trouble to be
9 able to basically work with each other.

10                  MR. PATERSON: So, we are
11 going to mark another document.

12                  It's going to be, I think we are up
13 to Exhibit 10, it's tab 7 in your
14 binder.

15                  (The above described document was
16 marked Exhibit 10 for identification as of
17 this date.)

18                  A         All right.

19                  Q         Do you have that in front of 20 you?

21                  A         Yes.

22                  Q         Are you familiar with that
23 document?

24                  A         Is this the first one or the 25 second one?

Page 153

1                    ALEXANDER E. JONES

2                    Q         First of all, are you
3 familiar with this document?

4                    A         Just the one, this is the 5 original?

6                    MS. DRIVER: I'm just showing
7 him he signed it.

8                    THE WITNESS: Is this the one
9 Shelby did or is this the new one?

10                  Q         Mr. Jones, we are only
11 interested in your testimony today.

12                  A         I don't remember. I can't
13 answer your question. There has been a
14 bunch of stuff. That's why, I'm being
15 honest with you, I don't remember.

16                  There has been like maybe two
17 or three of these, so --

18                  Q         Let's go to page 4. You see 19 you signed this document?

20                  A         Yeah, just because I signed
21 it doesn't mean it was agreed to.

22                  Q         Do you often sign --

23                  A         McGill rejected my first
24 employment agreement, and that's what this
25 is, so I can answer that question.

Page 154

1                    ALEXANDER E. JONES

2                    Q                So, going to the first
3 page -- first of all, why is it that you got
4 this employment agreement in April 2022?

5                    MS. DRIVER: I'm going to
6 object. He doesn't remember the 7 document, and he just said that
8 Patrick McGill rejected it.

9                    I want to make sure we don't 10 have the witness guessing about the
11 document.

12                  A                Actually, I'm guessing. I
13 know I had an employment agreement that 14 he -- that Schwartz had done, agreed to 15 that. He rejected it.

16                  I don't know this is that 17 document, and so I can't answer the
18 question.

19                  Q                When is the first employment
20 agreement you remember having with FSS?

21                  MS. DRIVER: If you can
22 answer.

23                  A                When Mark Schwartz first came 24 on, whenever that was, you can check it, we 25 did an employment agreement, he accepted it,

Page 155

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES

2 if I remember correctly.

3                   This is all off the top of my
4 memory. I think it's accurate. I am
5 speculating from memory, and then there have
6 been like three or four batted around since
7 then.

8                   When you interview Bob
9 Slizer, he's really professional. He has a
10 full list, he can answer this, but I'm not a
11 business guy, so I'm trying to help you
12 here.

13                  That's just the way I am. I
14 can't help it. I just should just say I
15 don't know.

16                  But I remember my first
17 agreement was accepted, but it never got 18 implemented, and I only got paid half or 19 whatever, if memory serves, and I don't know
20 if this is it or what.

21                  And we put in a bunch of 22 others, and it just goes on and on, and I'm
23 upside down, and that's basically what I
24 remember.

25                  Q           And before FSS filed for

Page 156

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES

2   bankruptcy, did you have an employment
3   agreement with FSS?

4                   MR. LEMMON: I object to the
5                   form.

6                   A       I don't know.

7                   Q       On page 4 of this document,
8   can you say who signed on behalf of FSS?

9                   A       Melinda Flores.

10                  Q       She was a bookkeeper,
11   correct?

12                  A       Yes.

13                  Q       And is there any document you
14   are aware of authorizing her to sign
15   contracts on behalf of FSS?

16                  MS. DRIVER: Objection, form.

17                  A       I don't know.

18                  Q       Am I right in understanding
19   that Ms. Flores reported to you?

20                  MS. DRIVER: Objection, form.

21                  A       I don't remember how all this
22   happened. I thought Mark Schwartz was here
23   when this happened.

24                  MS. DRIVER: Listen to his
25   question.

1                    ALEXANDER E. JONES

2                    Q            Am I right in understanding
3                    that Ms. Flores reported to you, is my
4                    question.

5                    A            I guess you could say that is
6                    correct yeah.

7                    Q            And so you were negotiating
8                    this employment agreement with your
9                    employee, is that right?

10                  MS. DRIVER: Objection, form.

11                  A            It was never implemented, but
12                  I don't even know, I don't remember.

13                  Q            Do you remember her pushing
14                  back against you on behalf of FSS during the 15                  negotiations?

16                  A            No.

17                  Q            And I think you testified you
18                  were not paid according to this agreement,
19                  is that the best of your understanding?

20                  A            You know, I'm trying to be 21                  helpful, but I don't remember all this.

22                  I told you there was one
23                  employment agreement that we thought was in 24                  place but never got implemented, and that's
25                  it.

1                    ALEXANDER E. JONES

2                    So -- I don't really know
3 what else to say. This might be something
4 else, I don't know.

5                    Q         And are we right in
6 understanding that in the last three years,
7 you never earned a cash salary from FSS more
8 than $639,000 a year?

9                    MS. DRIVER: Objection, form.

10                  A         I don't know.

11                  MR. PATERSON: We will mark
12 Exhibit 11. It's going to be tab
13 14.

14                  (The above described document was
15 marked Exhibit 11 for identification as of
16 this date.)

17                  Q         Do you recognize this
18 document?

19                  A         No.

20                  Q         I'll represent to you that 21 this is a document that was produced by your 22 lawyers in the litigation, to the best of my
23 understanding.

24                  Do you see it summarizes your
25 income for the past three years?

Page 159

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES

2                   MS. DRIVER: I'm going to
3                   object to his characterization of
4                   the document. I don't think I
5                   produced it in the course of
6                   litigation.

7                   MR. PATERSON: And Vickie,
8                   I'm just -- to be clear, the only
9                   thing I'm going on is the AEGBR
10                  Bates number.

11                  MS. DRIVER: I'm sorry, I
12                  guess I wasn't thinking of 13                  disclosures to the committee as
14                  litigation.

15                  MR. PATERSON: Okay, fair
16                  enough.

17                  MS. DRIVER: It was in 18                  statements.

19                  Q           I understand this document,
20                  to the best of my understanding, was 21                  provided by your lawyers to the committee, I
22                  will put it that way.

23                  A           Can I take another break for 24                  three minutes?

25                  MS. DRIVER: You have to

Page 160

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES

2                   answer the question.

3                   Do you want to take a break?

4                   A           Fine. I'll answer the 5 question, let's go.

6                   MS. DRIVER: I thought there
7 was a pending question.

8                   A           I need some glasses here.

9                   Q           I think we can break and then
10 we will pick this up.

11                  THE VIDEOGRAPHER: Let's go
12 off the record, the time is 5:22.
13 This ends media unit number 2.

14                  (At this point in the proceedings
15 there was a recess, after which the
16 deposition continued as follows:)

17                  THE VIDEOGRAPHER: The time
18 is 5:29. We are back on the record
19 with the start of media unit number
20 3.

21                  We are back on the record.

22                  Q           So, Mr. Jones, do you
23 recognize this document? We have got
24 Exhibit 11.

25                  A           Yes, I've got my magnifying

Page 161

1                    ALEXANDER E. JONES

2        glass out.

3                    Q            And have you seen this
4        document before?

5                    MS. DRIVER: Let me just
6        clarify the document. He has the
7        document in front of him, but I
8        don't think he recognized it.

9                    A            I don't recognize it, but
10       whatever.

11                  Q            And do you have any basis to 12       dispute that this describes your income
13       prior to filing for bankruptcy?

14                  A            Okay, if my people filed it
15       I'm sure it's accurate.

16                  Q            And you will see, if you look
17       under -- you see the first row where it
18       lists sources of income, you see wages?

19                  A            Yes.

20                  Q            And under -- from January 1
21       of current year until date you filed for 22       bankruptcy do, you see it lists $331,000?

23                  A            Yes.

24                  Q            And if you look at the next
25       set of boxes underneath it says last

Page 162

1                    ALEXANDER E. JONES
2 calendar, 1/1/21 to 12/31/21, do you see
3 that?

4                    A         Yes.

5                    Q         And you see that lists
6 $617,000 and change?

7                    A         Yes.

8                    Q         Any reason to think those
9 were not your wages in 2021 from FSS?

10                  A         I think those were my wages.
11 I remember something like that.

12                  Q         And I should have asked you 13 the same question for the $331,000 for the 14 current year.

15                  Any reason to believe those 16 were not your wages?

17                  A         I don't know about the
18 current year.

19                  Q         And then the bottom box has 20 prior year, 1/1/20 to 12/31/20? Do you see
21 that?

22                  A         Which year?

23                  Oh, yes, I see that.

24                  Q         Do you see it says wages,
25 $639,118?

Page 163

1                    ALEXANDER E. JONES

2                    A         Yes.

3                    Q         Any reason to believe those
4        were not your wages from FSS in 2020?

5                    A         No.

6                    Q         Do you understand that as
7        part of your proposed Plan of Reorganization
8        FSS would pay you a salary of $1.5 million?

9                    A         Yes, that's because I get
10      less from the other stuff.

11                  Q         What do you mean by the other
12      stuff?

13                  A         All the other money I bring 14      in, all the money I was just bringing in.

15                  Q         What do you mean by all the 16      other money?

17                  A         My percentages of supplement
18      sales, the advertising I was bringing in,
19      all the things I was doing separately, the 20      FSS gross revenue of $31 million.

21                  Q         Do you know, did you
22      negotiate the $1.5 million number with FSS?

23                  A         I know that's -- I think I
24      put that in the first employment agreement,
25      but I don't really remember, so I can't

Page 164

1                    ALEXANDER E. JONES

2 speak to it.

3                    Q         Do you remember who else was
4 involved in those negotiations?

5                    A         No.

6                    Q         Did you get any advice that
7 that $1.5 million was reasonable?

8                    MS. DRIVER: I'm going to
9 object. To the extent he is asking
10 for anything that would be advice
11 from your lawyers, do not answer.

12                  A         I can't answer. It was all
13 lawyer's advice.

14                  Q         Did you get any financial
15 advice that the $1.5 million was reasonable?

16                  A         I don't remember.

17                  Q         Did you do any other analysis
18 to support the $1.5 million figure?

19                  A         I don't recall.

20                  Q         Do you know whether the $1.5
21 million reflects fair market value for your 22 employment?

23                  A         No. I should be paid a lot
24 more.

25                  Q         Why is that?

1                    ALEXANDER E. JONES

2                    A         Because if I'm not here, it
3 all shakes and falls apart.

4                    Q         Why is it that FSS couldn't
5 continue with someone else?

6                    A         I know you guys want me to 7 think that you don't know that, that you got 8 such a great deal, as well as my crew and 9 the operation, but you know damn well, if
10 I'm not here this whole operation will shut
11 down in a matter of weeks.

12                  So, just go ahead, like they
13 say in Tombstone, "Be My Huckleberry,"
14 because if that's what you guys want, you
15 are about to get it.

16                  Q         What do you mean by "about to 17 get it"?

18                  A         I'm going to leave.

19                  As soon as this negotiation
20 doesn't work, I don't shut down my own
21 company, you guys come in and shut it down,
22 throw me in the briar patch.

23                  Q         Mr. Jones, is it your 24 testimony that if you don't get a settlement
25 with all Plaintiffs you are going to shut

Page 166

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES

2 down FSS?

3                   MS. DRIVER: I'm going to
4 object. To the extent that calls
5 for any conversations you have had
6 with counsel related to negotiations
7 and the legal advice related to
8 that, I'm going to instruct you not
9 to answer.

10                  A         Yeah, I can't answer the
11 question.

12                  Q         I'm just asking about your 13 present intention.

14                   Is your intention to shut
15 down FSS if you don't get a settlement with 16 all your creditors?

17                  MS. DRIVER: I'm going to
18 object to the extent that calls
19 form --

20                  A         I can't talk about
21 conversations with counsel.

22                  Q         I'm not asking about
23 conversations with counsel, I'm asking about
24 your plan, Mr. Jones.

25                   I'm not asking about advice,

Page 167

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES
2 I'm asking about what you personally plan to
3 do.

4                   Do you plan to shut down FSS
5 if you don't get a settlement with all your 6 creditors?

7                   MS. DRIVER: If you have a
8 current plan, or if it's not fully
9 formed in your mind, then it's not
10 something --

11                  A        It not fully formed. It's 12 just a personal feeling that I understand
13 what's going on with you guys.

14                  Just go ahead and keep 15 trying.

16                  Q        When you say it's not fully 17 formed in your mind, you were repeating what
18 your counsel just said, right?

19                  A        No, I have not 100 percent
20 made my decision, but, you know, just watch,
21 just watch, just watch.

22                  Q        What do you mean by "just 23 watch"?

24                  A        I'm just saying it's a
25 beautiful day, watch, watch the sunrise, the

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES

2       sunset.

3                   Q           What do you mean, "It's a
4       beautiful day, watch the sunrise, the
5       sunset"?

6                   A           I have just said I have --
7       I've not made my decisions yet, but if you
8       think I'm bluffing, you just wait and see.

9                   Q           And why shouldn't people
10      think you're bluffing?

11                  A           I'm just saying, you want me
12      to stay here, you want me to run this
13      company you, want me to keep it going, you
14      want me to pay you money and all of my crew.

15                  If I could actually make a
16      deal that's reasonable, I'll do it, but
17      let's stop pretending like I'm not supposed
18      to have toilet paper at my house and stuff
19      like that.

20                  So I'm just saying, I know
21      you guys get your orders from on high and 22      all that.

23                  All I'm saying is do whatever
24      you're going to do, and I'm comfortable with 25      it.

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES

2                 Q           And you said bluffing. What
3 would you be bluffing?

4                 A           No, if I don't get paid to
5 work, I'm going to go bye-bye.

6                   So, hold your breath and see
7 if that doesn't happen.

8                 Q           When you said, "don't have 9 toilet paper in your house," who has 10 suggested that you shouldn't have toilet
11 paper in your house?

12                A           It's a metaphor, and like I
13 said, I'm done talking about that.

14                   There is no set ideas. I'm 15 just telling you that I am aware of what's
16 going on and I'm done.

17                Q           What do you mean by you're
18 done?

19                A           I think that's pretty clear.
20 What I have said is what I have said. It's 21 done, it's there, and just keep pushing.

22                Q           What do you mean by "keep 23 pushing"?

24                A           Well, just keep pushing, see,
25 you'll see, just keep pushing.

Page 170

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES

2                   Q           What will we see if we keep
3 pushing?

4                   A           You will see what you see.

5                   Q           And what is that?

6                   A           Just what you see.

7                   MS. DRIVER: I think you guys
8 have devolved into a very
9 nonsensical conversation.

10                  Let's try to, Alex, please
11 just answer the question he's 12 asking.

13                  A           Nothing. I'm saying I'm done
14 being harassed, I'm done with all this 15 insanity and all these made up numbers and 16 all this stuff you guys come up with.

17                  I'm just trying to move on 18 from you guys. But if you guys can't help
19 yourselves, the point is that if you don't
20 think I'm supposed to be paid to work a job
21 to pay you most of my money, then if you
22 don't like that deal, that's your deal, but 23 I'm not going to sit here and debate how
24 many angels can dance on the head of a pin
25 all day long.

Page 171

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES

2                   Q           And you reference made up
3       numbers. What numbers do you think are made
4       up?

5                   A           $130 million to a guy that I
6       didn't even know who he was until he sued
7       me, how does that happen in America?

8                   Q           Have you received employment
9       offers during the bankruptcy from other
10      parties other than FSS?

11                  MS. DRIVER: I'm going to 12       object to the extent this calls for 13       anything that you have discussed
14       with your counsel.

15                  And I want to make sure that 16       the client, that you are absolutely
17       clear these are offers. We are not
18       just talking about socializing
19       concepts.

20                  A           Absolutely, no, I don't have 21       any offers.

22                  Q           And has anyone socialized the 23       concept of employment with you during the 24       bankruptcy?

25                  MS. DRIVER: I object to the

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES
2                   extent that is confidential
3                   information that he has with other
4                   business associates, and I'm not
5                   going to let him testify about that.

6                   A         Yeah, the sky is the limit.
7                   I don't need to have any agreements or 8                   anything with anybody. If I walk away from 9                   this I can do whatever I want.

10                  Q         So, are you accepting your
11                  counsel's instruction not to testify about 12                  other business discussions you have had?

13                  A         I already told you there are 14                  no business discussions. I can get anything
15                  I want.

16                  Q         Do you think you could make
17                  more working somewhere other than FSS?

18                  A         Undoubtedly.

19                  Q         Where?

20                  MS. DRIVER: I'm going to
21                  object. I'm not going to let you
22                  mention opportunities.

23                  A         It's theoretical. The point
24                  is I want to end this chapter and move on.

25                  But if, out of their

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES
2 behavior, they can't do that, that's fine
3 with me.

4                   I just have confidence that
5 I'm going -- I'm a commodity that's going to 6 be needed.

7                   Q         And would do you think --
8 what other parties might be interested in
9 employing you, to your knowledge?

10                  MS. DRIVER: I am going to 11 object, this is business
12 confidential information, it's 13 proprietary, and I'm going to
14 instruct the witness not to answer.

15                  A         On counsel's advice I'm not 16 going to answer.

17                  MS. DRIVER: Okay, we will 18 reserve our rights on that one and
19 we can move on as well.

20                  MR. PATERSON: I must admit
21 the confidentiality objection isn't
22 one I have heard in depositions
23 before where there is a
24 confidentiality order, but we will
25 move on, reserving all rights.

Page 174

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES

2                   MS. DRIVER: There are

3                   litigation parties who have stated
4                   on the record they are out to 5                   destroy Mr. Jones.

6                   It is not inconsequential
7                   that someone would approach them and
8                   actually try to hurt his chances to 9                   go to court -- to go to work for 10                  them.

11                  So I am actually doing what's 12                  in the creditors' best interests
13                  here.

14                  MR. PATERSON: Vickie, I
15                  don't want to get into a degradation
16                  that's about as fanciful as your 17                  team's TMZ theory.

18                  A           Your TMZ -- nobody is 19                  covering me .nobody cares about me you are a
20                  conspiracy theorist.

21                  Q           Mr. Jones, are you aware of 22                  three condos on Clausen Road?

23                  A           No.

24                  Q           Are you familiar with units
25                  3, 4 and 6 at 3504 Clausen Road?

Page 175

1                    ALEXANDER E. JONES

2                    A         Yes.

3                    Q         Who owns those condos?

4                    A         Trusts for my children.

5                    Q         The trusts for your children
6 own all three?

7                    A         Yeah, from best of my
8 knowledge, those are properties that my
9 children's trust own.

10                  Q         Who lives in them?

11                  A         Several of my children.

12                  Q         Who pays the carrying costs
13 on them currently?

14                  A         I did previously, but to the 15 best of my knowledge, now they pay for that.

16                  Q         And "them" being your
17 children or the trusts?

18                  A         I don't have the details of 19 it. I'm not involved, they take care of it.

20                  Q         Why did you previously pay
21 those costs?

22                  A         Because they were minors,
23 they are now adults.

24                  Q         But why did you pay the costs
25 rather than the trusts?

ALEXANDER E. JONES

A I don't have all the details,
I think the trust did pay for some of it.

Q Let's take a look at tab 29,
it's going to be Exhibit 12.

(The above described document was marked Exhibit 12 for identification as of this date.)

Q            Do you recognize this
document?

A No.

Q So, let's go to the next page, a bit further down to where your signature is.

Do you see on page 9 you signed this document?

A            Yeah, I just told you I don't recognize it, I don't remember.

If you go back to page 1 --

A                   Yup.

Q            Do you see it's a monthly operating report for the period ended
September 30, 2023. Do you see that?

A                   Yup.

Q Any reason to believe this

Page 177

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES

2   isn't the monthly operating report for 3   September?

4                   A         No, I have no reason not to 5   believe it.

6                   Q         And if you look at page -- I
7   think it's the second to last page of the
8   document.

9                   MS. DRIVER: I'm going to
10                  object. It doesn't appear this is 11                  the most recent on the docket, but 12                  it was filed at this page, so it may 13                  or may not be the most -- the 14                  operative document since the 15                  amendment.

16                  Q         Okay, so we are on page 17.
17                  Do you see a few -- about a third of the way
18                  down, the page --

19                  MS. DRIVER: Page 17, I don't
20                  see anything. March 17?

21                  Q         So it's on page 5 of 8. It's 22                  on the second to last page of the actual 23                  file.

24                  MS. DRIVER: 6th?

25                  MR. PATERSON: 5 of 6,

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES

2                   Vickie.

3                   MS. DRIVER: It's here.

4                   Q         Do you see Austin condos
5 listed about a third of the way down?

6                   A         Yes.

7                   Q         And total, Austin condos,
8 there is an expense of $917 for that month.
9 Do you see that?

10                  MS. DRIVER: I object to the
11 extent this is not the information
12 that is contained in the current
13 document, so I do not want the 14 client testifying that this is true
15 and correct, because it's been 16 amended.

17                  Q         I just asked him if he saw
18 it, Vickie.

19                  A         I have helped my children out
20 before, but it's been my knowledge for 21 years, it's all been taken care of for 22 years, it's all their deal.

23                  But I mean this isn't some 24 document -- I'm sure at the time it was
25 filed I thought it was accurate, I don't

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES

2 know.

3                   Q         And to the extent you paid
4 costs for those condos, has your estate been
5 fully repaid for those costs?

6                   A         I'm told it's in the process.

7                   Q         Do you know where in the 8 process it is?

9                   A         No.

10                  Q         And do you know if it was in 11 process before the creditors in this case
12 raised this issue?

13                  A         I don't know.

14                  Q         Let's take a look then -- by 15 the way, where it says Austin condos?

16                  MS. DRIVER: It's a charge
17 under $1,000.

18                  Q         Where it says Austin condos,
19 do you understand that to be referencing the 20 three units on Clausen Road we were just 21 discussing?

22                  A         I would guess you're right.
23 I don't know, I have not ever paid attention
24 to this.

25                  Q         You said it's in the process

Page 180

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES
2   of being reimbursed. Who is in the process
3   of doing that?

4                   A         Bob Slizer.

5                   I think that may be the fish
6   tank, because of a fish tank that I want to 7   get rid of, or the HOA. There is a fish
8   tank that's still mine.

9                   I never got rid of the fish.
10   I pay for a fish tank over there, I forgot.

11                  Q         An actual fish tank?

12                  A         It's a salt water fish tank
13   I've had for like 15 years, yes.

14                  Q         And how much does that cost?

15                  A         It's $100 bucks a week. They 16   come and feed them, it's a big fish tank.

17                  Q         And you've been maintaining
18   that fish tank throughout your bankruptcy?

19                  A         It's been there for years. I
20   actually remembered the fish tank, I'm
21   guessing that could be the fish tank, but it
22   looks like the HOA actually here on the 23   line.

24                  But if you want, we will kill
25   the fish and we will throw them out on the

Page 181

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES

2       side of the road.

3                   Q         Do you think paying $100 a
4       week for a fish tank is a prudent use of 5       creditor funds?

6                   MS. DRIVER: I think asking a
7       question about a $100 charge in a
8       deposition where people are charging
9       ten times that an hour is not 10      prudent.

11                  A         Maybe it's not the fish tank.
12       Actually it says HOA, I was wrong. I was 13       trying to think of any bill I was paying in 14       one of those condos. Maybe it's the fish
15       tank.

16                  Q         But to go back to my
17       question, do you think paying $100 a week
18       for a fish tank is a prudent use of creditor
19       funds?

20                  A         Well, now that I look at the 21       document closer, I don't think I'm paying
22       for the fish tank, I think it says HOA.

23                  Q         Do you have any understanding
24       if you're paying for the fish tank or not?

25                  A         It's been amended.

Page 182

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES

2                   MS. DRIVER: I also want to
3                   note we have been spending all this
4                   time looking at a document that's
5                   been amended.

6                   MR. PATERSON: I'm not even
7                   asking -- Vickie, I know you want to
8                   make speeches. I'm not even asking
9                   about the document, I'm asking --

10                  Q           Is it your understanding
11                  you've been paying $100 a week for a fish
12                  tank?

13                  A           If the Sandy Hook creditors
14                  ask me to, we will execute the fish.

15                  Q           I wasn't asking about the 16                  execution of fish, Mr. Jones.

17                  A           Should we kill them?

18                  Q           Is it your understanding
19                  you've been paying $100 a week for a fish
20                  tank?

21                  A           It's a fish sanctuary to save
22                  the fish.

23                  Q           Fish sanctuary. And do you
24                  think maintaining a fish --

25                  A           I'm being sarcastic, dude. I

Page 183

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES
2   was actually wrong. I think somebody else
3   is paying for the fish.

4                   I haven't looked at it in
5   over a year. It says HOA, once I read the
6   document.

7                   So the fish aren't, I believe
8   they are not paid being paid for by me.

9                   This will be a great headline
10   when you put it on TMZ. Like, they wanted
11   my cat, Mooshu.

12                  It did not look good for you.
13   Do you know about the cat thing?

14                  Q        I'm not here to answer
15   questions, Mr. Jones.

16                  A        I have -- now you're after 17   the fish, okay.

18                  Q        I just -- we will move on.

19                  Are you aware of any claims
20   that your estate holds against third
21   parties?

22                  A        No.

23                  Q        And, so are you aware of any 24   claims your estate has against your wife,
25   Erica?

Page 184

1                    ALEXANDER E. JONES

2                    A                No.

3                    Q                You have purported to ratify
4                    a prenuptial agreement with her just months
5                    before your bankruptcy, right?

6                    MS. DRIVER: Objection. To
7                    the extent this calls for 8                    conversations you had with your
9                    lawyer regarding the prenuptial
10                  agreement, I'm going to instruct you
11                  not to answer.

12                  And to the extent that we are 13                  characterizing it as a purported
14                  ratification, I'm going to object to 15                  the form of the question.

16                  If we need to get into all of 17                  these issues that are just alleged,
18                  I am going to have to just object a
19                  whole lot more.

20                  MR. PATERSON: I understand.

21                  A                I will follow the advice of 22                  my counsel.

23                  Q                She didn't instruct you not
24                  to answer, actually.

25                  A                I don't understand all the

Page 185

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES
2 prenup stuff, I'm not answering your
3 question. I don't know.

4                   Q         Do you recall ratifying a
5 prenuptual agreement months before your
6 bankruptcy?

7                   A         No.

8                   Q         Do you recall making payments
9 under that prenuptual agreement?

10                  A         Yeah, for eight years; seven
11 years.

12                  Q         Do you recall transferring
13 about $1.5 million in cash to your wife in 14 the four years prior to filing for
15 bankruptcy?

16                  MS. DRIVER: I object to
17 form.

18                  A         No.

19                  Q         Any basis to dispute that you
20 did that?

21                  MS. DRIVER: Objection, form.

22                  A         I'm not going to debate that 23 with you. I don't have all the details in 24 front of me.

25                  Q         And any basis to dispute that

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES
2       you paid more than $800,000 to your wife in
3       the year prior to your bankruptcy filing?

4                   A       I'm not arguing those
5       numbers. I don't have it in front of me.

6                   Q       And you purchased an Audi in
7       December 2017 and a Range Rover in November
8       2018, correct?

9                   A       I don't remember the dates.

10                  Q       But you purchased those
11      vehicles around those times?

12                  A       I don't remember.

13                  Q       Who owns the Audi?

14                  MS. DRIVER: Objection, form.

15                  A       I don't even remember.

16                  Q       Who did you purchase these 17      cars for?

18                  MS. DRIVER: Objection, form.

19                  He's already said he didn't
20      remember.

21                  A       I don't remember any of this.

22                  Q       So I just described, I asked
23      you about a series of facts.

24                  What efforts have you made to 25      investigate whether those facts give rise to

Page 187

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES

2 claims of your estate?

3                   MS. DRIVER: I'm going to
4 object. To the extent this calls
5 for conversations that you have had
6 with counsel, I'm going to instruct
7 you not to answer.

8                   THE WITNESS: I don't know
9 what he's talking about. I don't
10 know what it means.

11                  MS. DRIVER: There is no
12 reason any individual would go
13 through any individual effort other
14 than talking to a lawyer about
15 claims.

16                  So, just, if you did
17 something outside of talking to a
18 lawyer, answer. If not, I instruct
19 you not to answer.

20                  A         No, I didn't. I don't know
21 what he's talking about.

22                  Q         Have you been involved in 23 investigating whether your estate might have 24 claims against any party?

25                  MS. DRIVER: Objection, same

Page 188

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES

2                   instruction.

3                   A           No.

4                   Q           And are you aware of any
5                   efforts to settle claims against other
6                   parties?

7                   MS. DRIVER: If you know.

8                   A           No.

9                   Q           We will change topics.

10                  I want to talk a bit about 11                  the property you have claimed as your 12                  homestead in this case.

13                  What is your homestead?

14                  You understand what property
15                  you have claimed as your homestead?

16                  MS. DRIVER: I will note for 17                  the record that his address has been 18                  sealed under the record.

19                  I just prefer it not be 20                  stated on the record.

21                  A           TMZ, you mean?

22                  Q           I'll ignore the reference to 23                  TMZ. I think -- I'm not asking for the 24                  address. Am I right in understanding your 25                  homestead is in Austin?

Page 189

1                    ALEXANDER E. JONES

2                    A         Yes.

3                    Q         And how much did you buy that
4     property for?

5                    A         I don't remember.

6                    Q         When did you buy it?

7                    A         I don't remember the exact
8     date, eight or nine years ago.

9                    Q         Have you made improvements to 10    that property since you bought it?

11                  A         No, we have just repaired it.

12                  Q         What repairs have you made?

13                  MS. DRIVER: I'm going to
14     object. In eight years there is 15     absolutely no way anybody in this
16     room could remember how many repairs
17     that they have made.

18                  It's a ridiculous question.

19                  MR. PATERSON: Vickie, I will
20     appreciate if you avoid commenting
21     on questions as ridiculous.

22                  A         We fixed the roof, there was 23     a flood. There was a big freeze twice,
24     broke a bunch of pipes.

25                  The gutters broke, stuff like

Page 190

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES

2       that.

3       Q       When was the house built?

4       A       I don't know.

5                   MS. DRIVER: It's okay if you
6       don't know.

7       A       I don't know.

8       Q       Any sense --

9                   MS. DRIVER: Excuse me?

10      Q       I said any sense of when it
11     was built?

12                  MS. DRIVER: He said he
13     didn't know.

14      A       Look it up on Zillow.

15                  MS. DRIVER: It's on the real
16     property record. There is no reason
17     we have to do this on the record.

18                  MR. PATERSON: Vickie, again
19     we, can do without the commentary.

20                  MR. PATERSON: Let's look at 21     a document. It's going to be 22     Exhibit 12. It's tab 15 in your
23     binder.

24                  (The above described document was
25     marked Exhibit 12 for identification as of

Page 191

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES

2                   this date.)

3                   MS. DRIVER: 12?

4                   MR. PATERSON: 12, Exhibit

5                   12, tab 15.

6                   MS. DRIVER: Fine.

7                   MR. PATERSON: I think it's
8                   actually 13, I am told.

9                   (The above described document was
10                  marked Exhibit 13 for identification as of
11                  this date.)

12                  MS. DRIVER: It's their hard
13                  stop, I will let them call it. .

14                  That's not the my team.

15                  Q         It's Exhibit 13, tab 15, just 16                  let me know when you have it.

17                  A         We have it, what's the next
18                  question?

19                  Q         Do you recognize this
20                  document?

21                  A         No.

22                  Q         Have you seen it -- well
23                  strike that.

24                  Q         We are going to go to page
25                  135 of the document, it's near the end?

Page 192

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES

2                   A         Magnifying glass.

3                   MS. DRIVER: It's really tiny
4                   you might be better off looking up
5                   there.

6                   A         What is this.

7                   Q         A hard copy might be easier
8                   for this one but we are trying to zoom it
9                   in?

10                  MS. DRIVER: Actually the one
11                  on the screen is better.

12                  A         Okay, what's the next
13                  question?

14                  Q         You see it titled analysis of 15                  Jones family FSS equity account
16                  transactions?

17                  A         Yeah.

18                  Q         If you look under home
19                  construction, you see there is an amount of 20                  about $2.9 million?

21                  A         Okay.

22                  Q         And that?

23                  MR. LEMMON: Paul, can you
24                  hear me this is Steve Lemmon?

25                  MR. PATERSON: I can hear

Page 193

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES

2                   you.

3                   MR. LEMMON: Paul is this
4                   deposition sealed?

5                   MR. PATERSON: We agreed it
6                   would be subject to the protective
7                   order subject to any parties' right
8                   to challenge it under its terms.

9                   MS. DRIVER: This is a sealed
10                  document, though that you are using
11                  let me almost right this is a sealed
12                  document.

13                  MR. PATERSON: Its subject to 14                  the protective order.

15                  MR. LEMMON: I object to you
16                  using a sealed document in the FSS
17                  case to cross-examine Mr. Jones in 18                  the Jones case.

19                  If you want to pull a
20                  specific excerpt from it, then we 21                  can discuss whether or not that's 22                  appropriate.

23                  But attaching this document
24                  to this deposition is improper and I
25                  object.

Page 194

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES

2                   MR. PATERSON: We disagree, I
3                   mean we are only going to talk about
4                   this page.

5                   MS. DRIVER: I object to this
6                   being attached to the deposition, if 7                   we need to take this to the judge we 8                   will, but this was sealed and the 9                   deposition isn't sealed.

10                  MR. PATERSON: Look, why
11                  don't we -- we will table this 12                  discussion for now, I'm not going to 13                  ask any more questions about the 14                  document given the objections, we 15                  will take it down and let me just 16                  ask.

17                  MS. DRIVER: You can ask
18                  questions about it but I don't want
19                  it attached to the deposition
20                  transcript.

21                  MR. PATERSON: Yeah, look we
22                  are happy to work this out off line.

23                  Q                  Do you have any basis to 24                  dispute that you spent $2.9 -- well let me
25                  rephrase, do you have any basis to dispute

Page 195

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES
2    that between 2010 and 2022 you took draws
3    from FSS of about $2.9 million for home
4    construction?

5                   MS. DRIVER: Objection, form.

6                   A         I can't speak to this, I
7    don't have the details.

8                   Q         And do you have any basis to 9    dispute in around the 1,200 days prior to
10   the petition date you withdrew about $2
11   million for home construction?

12                  A         I can't confirm these numbers
13    in front of me so I can't speak to it.

14                  Q         Prior to 2019, your home
15    construction draws for any year were never 16   over $6,000.

17                  Any basis to dispute that?

18                  A         I can't confirm these
19    numbers, I can't speak to it.

20                  Q         And do you recall spending
21    something in the order of $2 million or more
22   on home construction?

23                  A         No.

24                  Q         And is that something you
25   think you would remember if you had done?

1                    ALEXANDER E. JONES

2                    A            I'm going to try to
3 investigate it myself.

4                    Q            But if you had spent $2
5 million on home construction, do you think
6 you would have a memory of that sitting here
7 today?

8                    A            I'm going to have to 9 investigate this myself before I answer your
10 questions.

11                  Q            Do you dispute that at the 12 time you did the vast majority of this 13 construction, the Sandy Hook families had 14 commenced litigation against you?

15                  MS. DRIVER: I'm going to
16 object to the form.

17                  A            Basically I can't speak to 18 this, I haven't had time to look into it.

19                  Q            Was your home construction a
20 way of estate planning?

21                  MS. DRIVER: Objection, form,
22 not instruction to answer.

23                  A            Yeah, I can't answer your
24 question.

25                  Q            You have referenced before, I

Page 197

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES

2   think you used the term non-exempt assets
3   and exempt assets.

4                   What do you understand that
5   to mean?

6                 A       All I mean, there are things
7   like myself, that's ex-tempot exempt, there
8   are other things that aren't.

9                 Q       Is your interest in FSS
10   exempt?

11                A       I don't know.

12                MR. PATERSON: Right, we have
13   come to 7:00, or 6:00 your time, I
14   guess.

15                Per agreement with counsel,
16   we had agreed to continue the
17   deposition, because would have a
18   hard stop now.

19                So I think let's go off the 20   record and we will figure out
21   another time to pick it up.

22                MS. DRIVER: If we agree to.
23   I said I would work with you on that
24   if we still have relevant questions.

25                THE VIDEOGRAPHER: Okay,

Page 198

1                   ALEXANDER E. JONES

2                   let's go off the record, the time is
3                   6:00 p.m., we are off the record.

4                   (At this point in the proceedings
5                   there was recess, after which the
6                   deposition continued as follows:)

7                   THE VIDEOGRAPHER: We are 8                   going off the record at 6:01 p.m.
9                   This concludes today's testimony
10                  given by Alexander Jones.

11                  The total number of media
12                  units used is 3, and will be

Federal Rules of Civil Procedure

Rule 30

(e) Review By the Witness; Changes.

(1) Review; Statement of Changes. On request by the deponent or a party before the deposition is completed, the deponent must be allowed 30 days after being notified by the officer that the transcript or recording is available in which:

(A) to review the transcript or recording; and

(B) if there are changes in form or substance, to sign a statement listing the changes and the reasons for making them.

(2) Changes Indicated in the Officer's Certificate. The officer must note in the certificate prescribed by Rule 30(f)(1) whether a review was requested and, if so, must attach any changes the deponent makes during the 30-day period.

DISCLAIMER: THE FOREGOING FEDERAL PROCEDURE RULES ARE PROVIDED FOR INFORMATIONAL PURPOSES ONLY. THE ABOVE RULES ARE CURRENT AS OF APRIL 1, 2019. PLEASE REFER TO THE APPLICABLE FEDERAL RULES OF CIVIL PROCEDURE FOR UP-TO-DATE INFORMATION.
